A Year Full of Memories
THE 1981 RECORD

Montpelier High School
Montpelier, Vermont

We, the graduating Class of 1981, dedicate this year's Record to a friend and teacher who has offered us much during our four years at M.H.S.

His sense of humor and personality never failed to come through to make life a little easier. He never let us down if we needed a smile or a laugh. Only he would wear a cowboy hat and earmuffs during a Vermont winter to brighten our spirits! He liked each of us for what we were and took the time to be a friend.

This dedication is meant to mark his time spent with us rather than his leaving for a new career in early March.

With thanks for everything and wishes for the best of luck always, we dedicate our yearbook to ...

A Jumpin' Year

A JUMPIN' AT YEAR M.H.S

If I could fly away ...

A jumpin' threesome ...

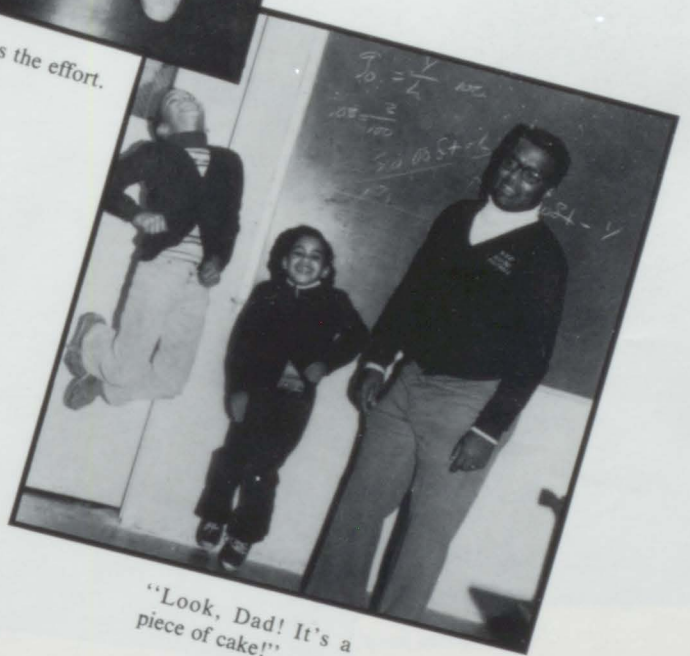

Jamie strikes a pose.

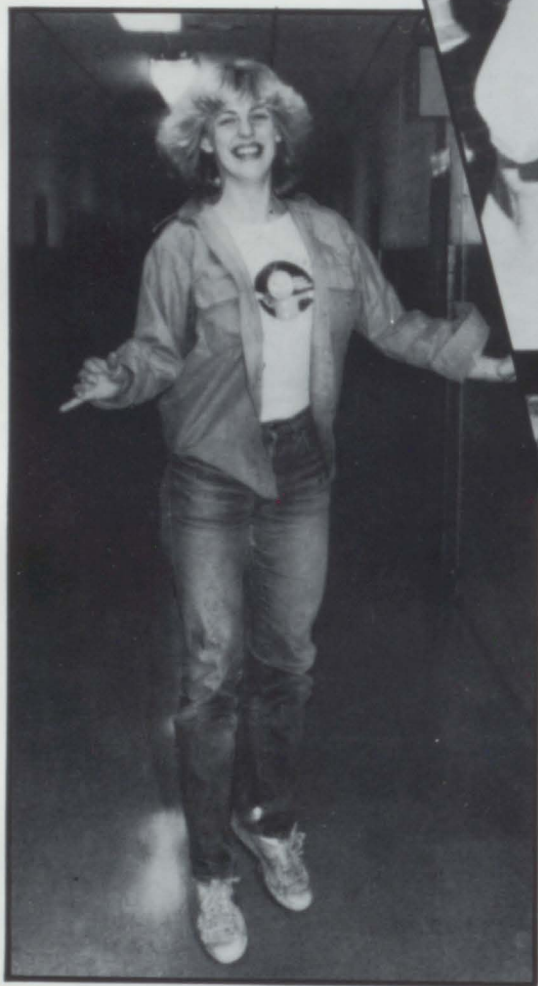

Jack makes the effort.

Tom and his tonsils.

"Look, Dad! It's a piece of cake!"

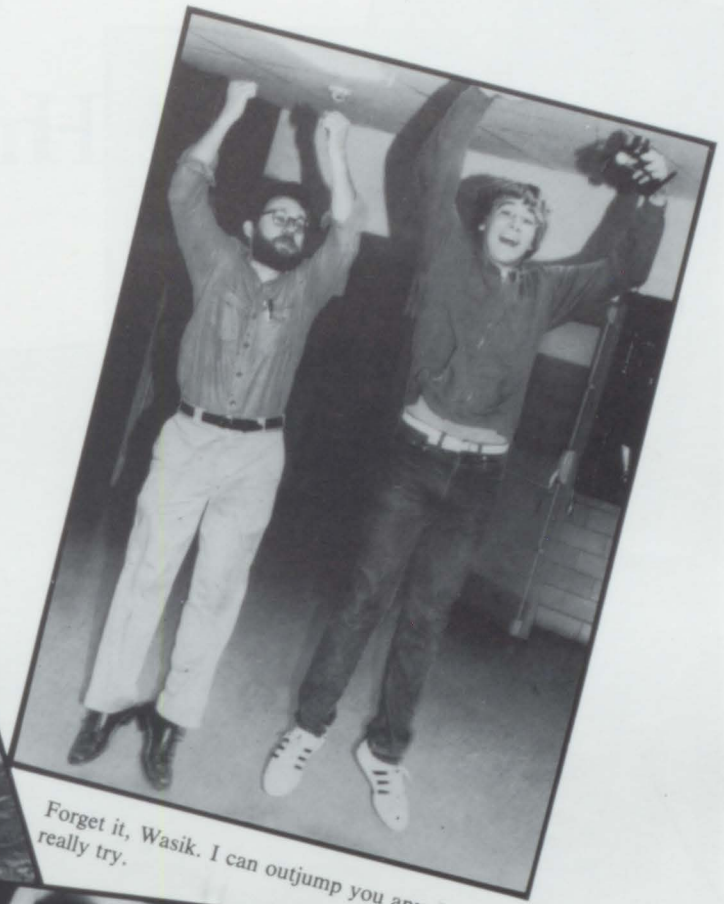

See Jones jump!

Alright!!

Those who learn together, jump together??

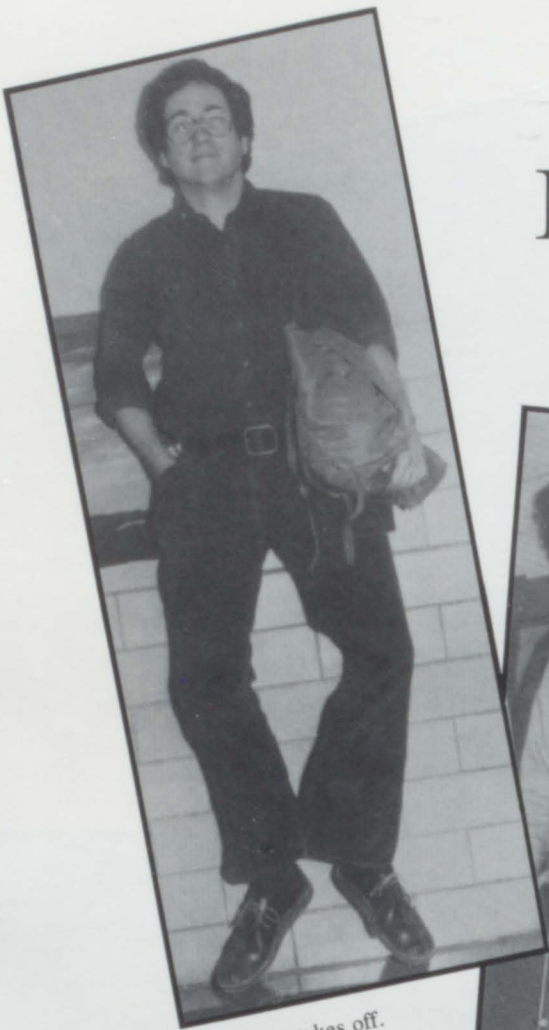

Forget it, Wasik. I can outjump you any day. If I really try.

Freshmen flip out!

The people at M.H.S. are always jumpin' . . .

Talbot takes off.

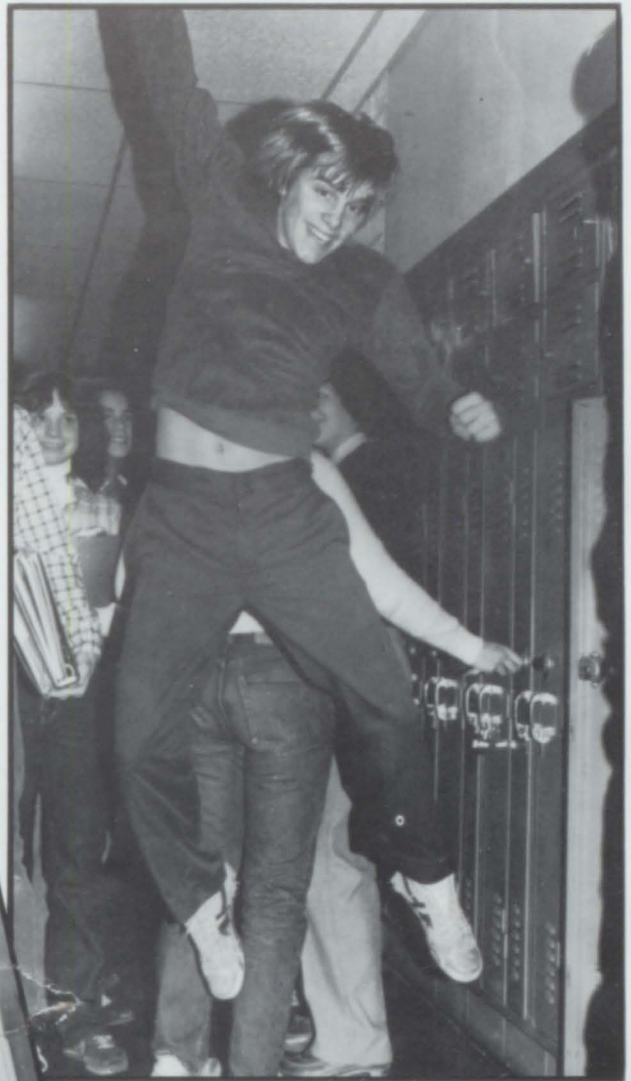

A jumping janitor!

Cady and Janine hop to it.

... You just can't keep 'em down!

Oh, what a feeling!

Leapin' Lou!

Seniors

The Class of 1981

(Tries to form an 81 ...)

SENIOR OFFICERS: President Carl Pratt, Secretary Jennifer Wallace-Brodeur, Treasurer Kathy Drew, Vice President Dan Pierce.

Debbie takes a "time out" in English class.

To the Class of 1981:

Tradition in many cases is accepted by people because it tends to denote stability, as well as a comfort level. Now and then a break from tradition in the form of a new way to accomplish an end result is good for all of us.

You, the Class of 1981, have experienced a major break from traditional practices in that all 1981 graduates in Vermont must have met the Basic Competency requirements prior to being granted a diploma. While you may have felt at times that this was a real imposition and have asked the question, "Why us?" just keep in mind that change has to start at some point in time and if well handled will be of considerable benefit to those who follow.

To this end you are to be commended in the way you have cooperated with the school staff and entered into the competency process in a very positive manner. Your leadership qualities as a class reflect the individual initiatives which will be of considerable value to each of you in the years to come.

Thanks for your help, and the best to each of you in your future endeavors.

DRESS-UP DAY

The 1980 Homecoming started off with a bang! Wednesday was Dress-Up Day, and kids came to school dressed up as everything from pelicans to clowns. The juniors won for class participation, but, in the end, the senior boy "cheerleaders" proved to be the school favorites.

Homecoming week continued with T-shirt day. Students and teachers came to school sporting their favorite T-shirts. Also, Mr. Brooks received a plaque after making it through a surprise — and hilarious — “Mr. Brooks . . . This Is Your Life” assembly. On Friday, the freshmen got zapped at their pep rally initiation. They were tough, though. They went on strike and refused to sing, “We Love You, Seniors!”

The plays included over 30 people, many of them new to Masque.

FIELD HOCKEY

Varsity field hockey had a difficult 3-6-3 season this year, but the team was full of spirit and enthusiasm. Coach Stowell said that even though some of her best players were graduating, she knew the team would continue to improve next year.

Coach Walker says she can "hardly wait" for the next J.V. field hockey season. She said 1980 was a "growing year," and she was pleased with the girls' efforts. The season ended with a 2-7-2 record.

Field hockey members follow the action from the bench.

Cross Country

The girls' cross country team had a tough act to follow after three consecutive state championships, but the girls tried their best and had a satisfying season. With many able freshmen joining the team this year, they look forward to the future.

The boys' team continued on an upward trend. Coaches Phillips, Skea and Duesing look forward to an outstanding season next year. With the incredible talent of the underclassmen, M.H.S. hopes to have one of the top teams in the state.

The J. V. team also did very well, ending with 7 wins and 2 losses. Members show great potential for varsity action.

The freshmen had a 2-4 season, but they learned more with every game and gained a lot of experience.

The J.V. team, led by Coach Pierson, finished the season with a 4-7 record. They were up against a lot of tough competition, playing many Division I teams and playing well against them.

Boys' Basketball

The boys' varsity team didn't win as many games as in previous years, but the squad still provided their fans with a lot of excitement. They were a team that always hung in there, and many of their losses were very close. With a lot of players returning next year, the experienced lineup should reverse many of their defeats.

Coach Czok's J.V. players had a good season, ending with a 12-8 record. There was a lot of talent on the team, and Coach Drew looks forward to having some of the J.V. crew on varsity next year.

The freshmen had a very successful season, ending with an 11-5 record. Much praise should be given to the boys and Coach Drew, who, for the first time, got his hand at coaching both the freshman and varsity squads. The future looks bright for the frosh.

Skiing

The girls' alpine ski team had a very successful season this year. Led by captain Ása Ágren, the team finished well in the district finals. Under the fine coaching of Beth Eurich, one exceptional skier, Andrea Ponsetto, went on to become 13th in the state for giant slalom, and 16th in the state for slalom.

The boys' alpine ski team, composed mainly of underclassmen, worked very hard. Near the top of the field was captain Freddy Costello, who shows great promise.

The cross country ski team had a very rewarding year for coaches Martha Nowlan and Jamie Huntsman. Composed mainly of freshmen, the team went on to place well in the district finals.

Masque Unmasks!

The Masque, under two new directors this year, has emphasized behind-the-scenes work, and the club membership has grown considerably. In the fall, Masque presented three one-act plays and two scenes from Shakespeare. The spring production: "Camelot!!"

"But Golly Gee, Guenevere!" says King Arthur (Brian Dufresne).

Stage Crew

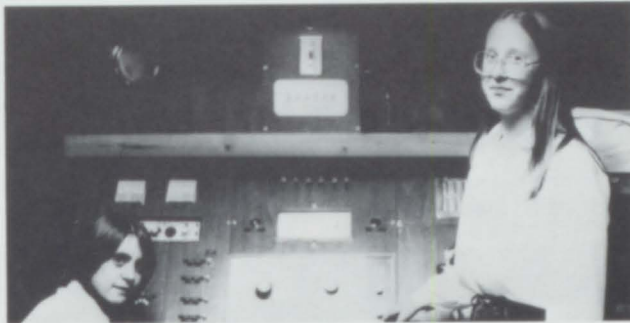

When the final curtain goes down on another successful M.H.S. production, stage crew deserves much of the praise. Members, under the guidance of Mr. Bateman, spend many hours setting up and operating lighting and sound equipment. They also take care of countless other details that go into creating "Hollywood Magic" on the M.H.S. stage.

Advisor Mr. Bateman, Crew Chief Paul Jenkins and Assistant Crew Chief Steve LaRosa check out lighting for Masque's fall show.

Penniann Pratt works a lighting dimmer board.

The sound board gets a going-over by Kim Higgins and Alicia Baren.

Jeff Otten and Ron Parker team up on technical chores.

Steve Folta looks like he has everything under control.

Chris Krahn and Sean Murphy move sets.

Lights get hung by David Holmes and Rick Otten.

F.H.A. meetings are fun. Annette Thurston, Sandy Skiffington and Sheila Robinson have a good laugh.

Advisor Mrs. Ryback and Zena Stark talk over F.H.A. business.

Montpelier's F.H.A. club is busy all year. Members get together for breakfast every week and plan projects to help them learn more about wise ways to run a home. Members included President and Parliamentarian A. Thurston, Secretary S. Robinson, Treasurer E. Adams, Public Relations Director V. Doten, Historian S. Demers, Recreation Leader A. Austin, S. Skiffington, Z. Stark and S. Rock.

Alison Kelly and Jack Hill do some heavy thinking on a heavy issue.

Leading a meeting are Treasurer Tim Tomasi, President Jeff Provost, Vice President Alex Ellerson and Secretary Louise Romano.

The Student Council this year took on some big and controversial issues. The issue of smoking in school, one of the most hotly-debated items of business, was taken to the School Board in November.

The council also sponsored several dances, held a canned food drive and headed several other activities.

Student Council members are fascinated by a new proposal.

The fun-loving French Club was active throughout the year. In the fall, members had a reception for the exchange students from Switzerland, followed by their annual Christmas party, which included participation in a community sing-along. The group celebrated the coming of spring with a Mardi Gras in March, and planned a June cook-out.

This year, along with an annual Christmas party and a year-end dinner, the Spanish Club sold Merri-bells in a fund-raising effort that took them to Fox Hill/Las Cuevas for an evening of fine dining in a Spanish atmosphere.

It seemed like the Latin Club had a party for every occasion. There were bashes for Halloween and Christmas, and one during February vacation. (We wonder if anyone brought a Caesar salad . . .) A cookout was scheduled for the end of the year.

The Book Club was founded this year to read and evaluate new books that come into the M.H.S. library. During the winter, members sold old books to buy new ones for the school's collection. The club is relatively small, but members hope that as it becomes more recognized, student interest will increase.

And How It Was Reborn

Kathy Guare cheerfully does a layout.

Editor Cathy Goulet lets the press whirl.

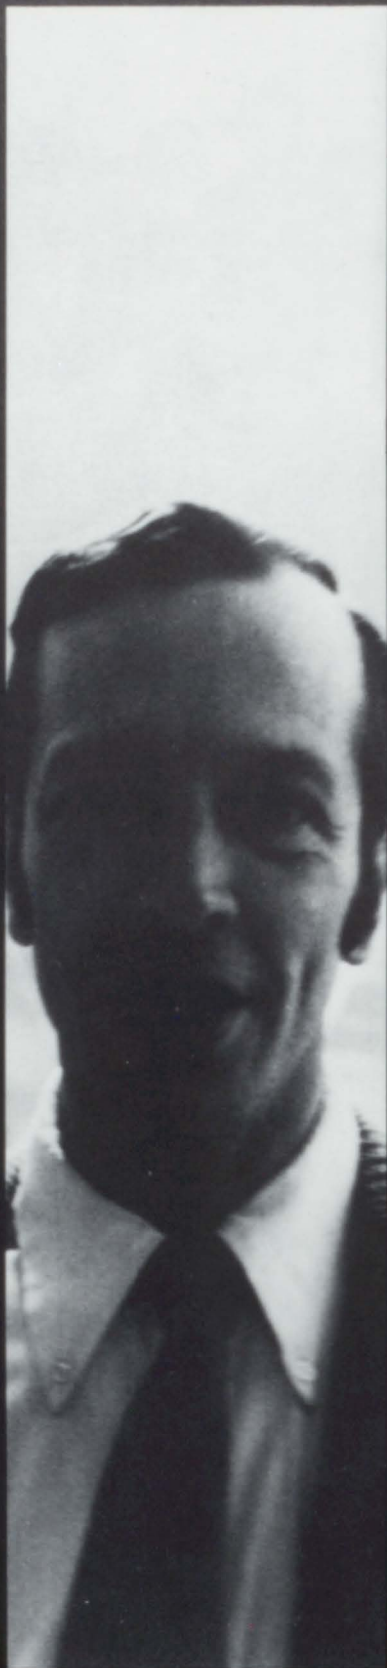

Stacy Frazier takes a peek at the finished product.

The Solonscope, M.H.S.'s newspaper, was revived in 1980 after many years of inactivity. Previous attempts at resuming production had failed, but with great enthusiasm, the 20 staff members published six issues during 1980-'81.

Hectic layout sessions and missed deadlines punctuated the year, but those on the staff found their work to be rewarding.

A few members and the paper's advisors planned to attend a newspaper convention in Massachusetts in the spring. The outlook for the Solonscope is bright for coming years.

Goddard College

Plainfield, Vermont 05667

(802) 454-8311

The Goddard philosophy of education begins with the individual student. It says that the aim of education is individual growth and development. It asks of students clear purpose, the responsible exercise of freedom, and the desire to learn for the intrinsic value in the learning. It says that the function of the college is to create an environment most conducive to learning that is social as well as individual, and that involves all of the personality, not only that which we call intellectual but also the emotional and the physical. It says that the college must be a community of students and teachers.

— Royce S. Pitkin,

founder and President Emeritus

SPRING RECORD

1988

Graduation

The pouring rain outside did not dampen the spirits of the Class of '81, which graduated in the M.H.S. gym.

“Montpelier High with loyal song we rally to thy call ... mutter, mumble ... hum ... ?#!? ... yawn ... %!?! ...
FOREVER MORE!!”

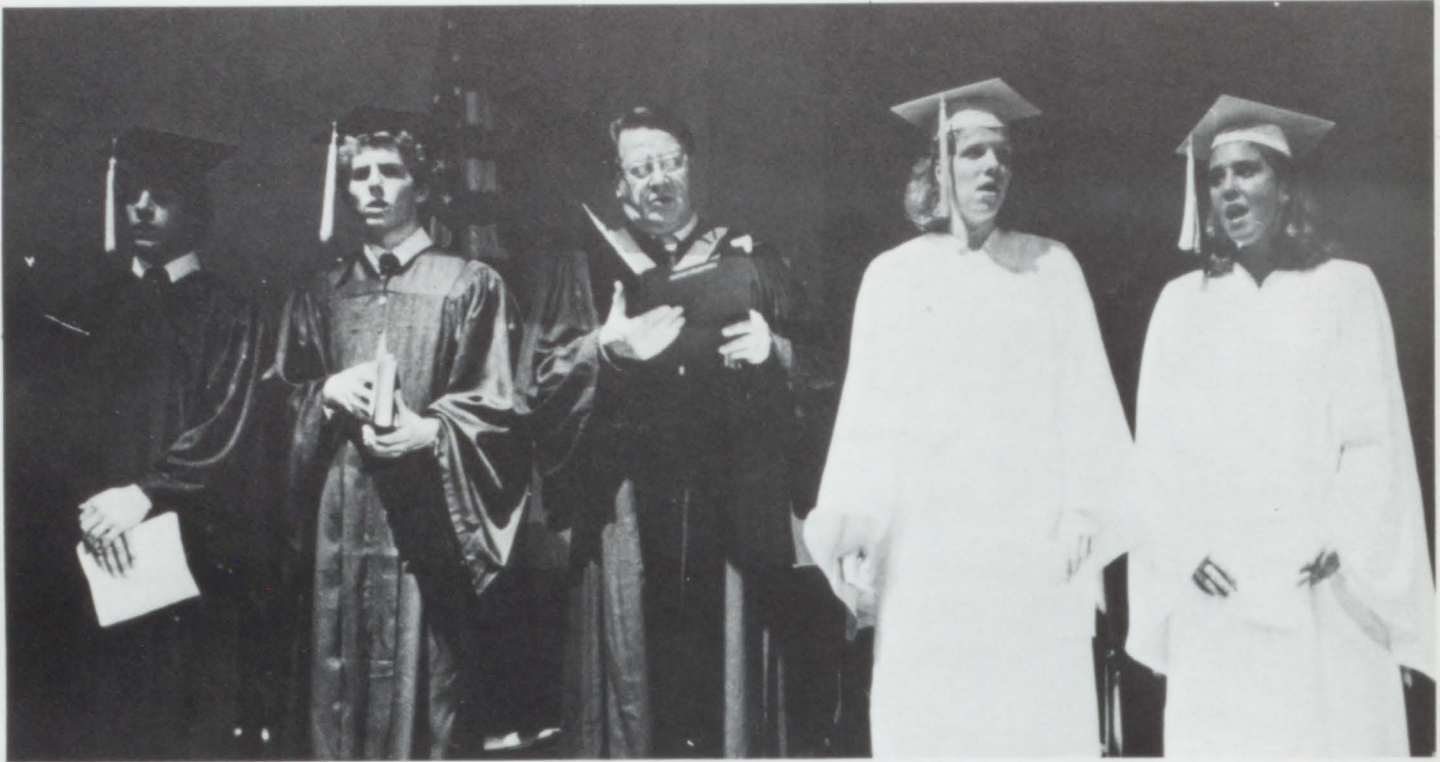

The pride of a big accomplishment shows in Chrissie Roy's smile.

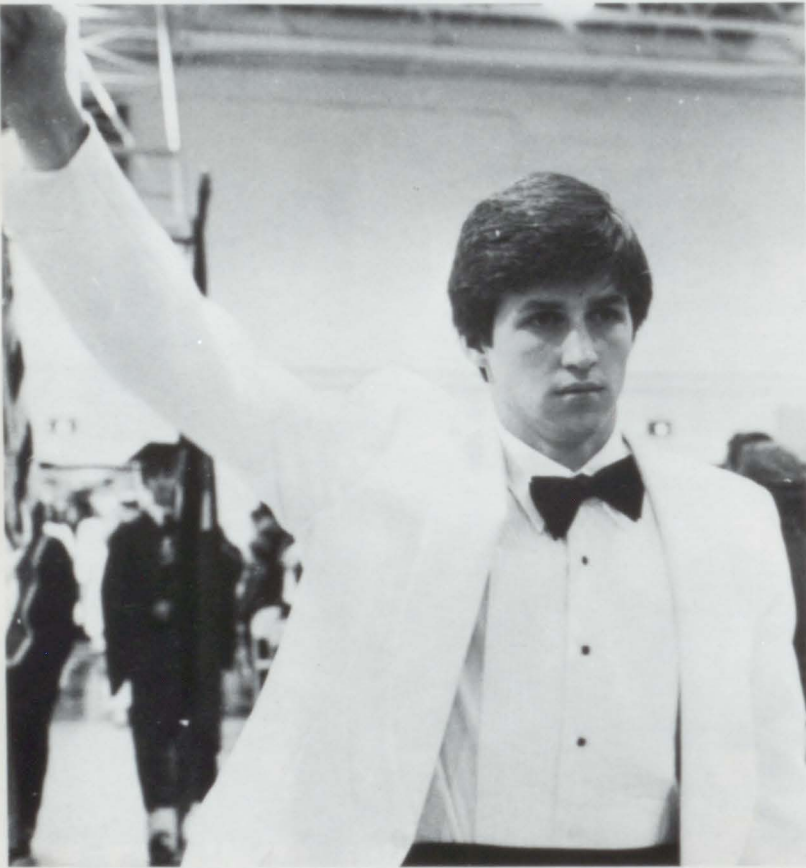

Lori Denis? Are you there, Lori?

Jill Swasey and Dan Pierce find lots to look at and talk about.

The 1981 class officers join Rev. Hammon of the Unitarian Church at Vespers two night before graduation. Singing are President Carl Pratt, Vice President Dan Pierce, Secretary Jennifer Wallace-Brodeur and Treasurer Kathy Drew.

Junior Class President Shawn Sweeney leads in the graduating class.

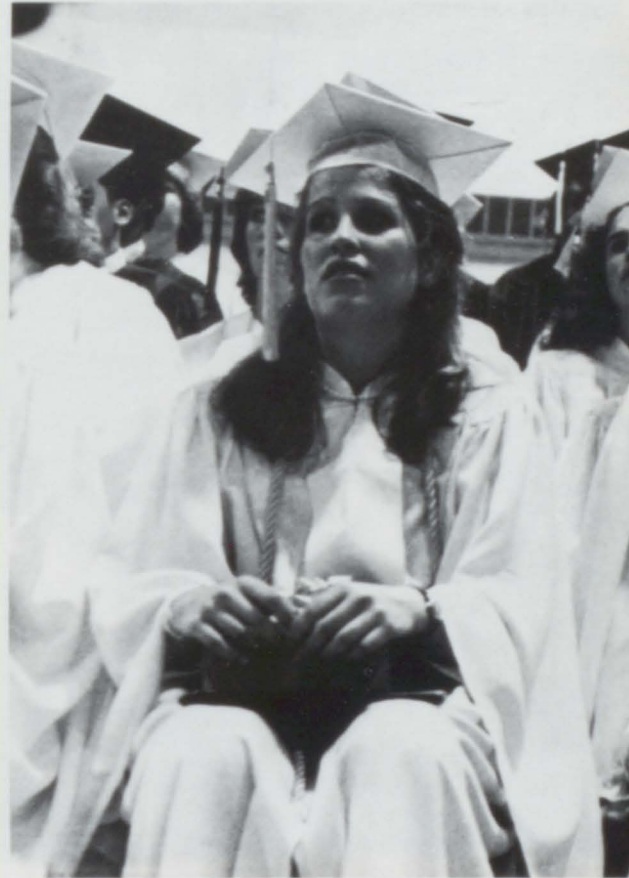

Cheryl Aitchison ponders a special moment.

Nervous, Kath?

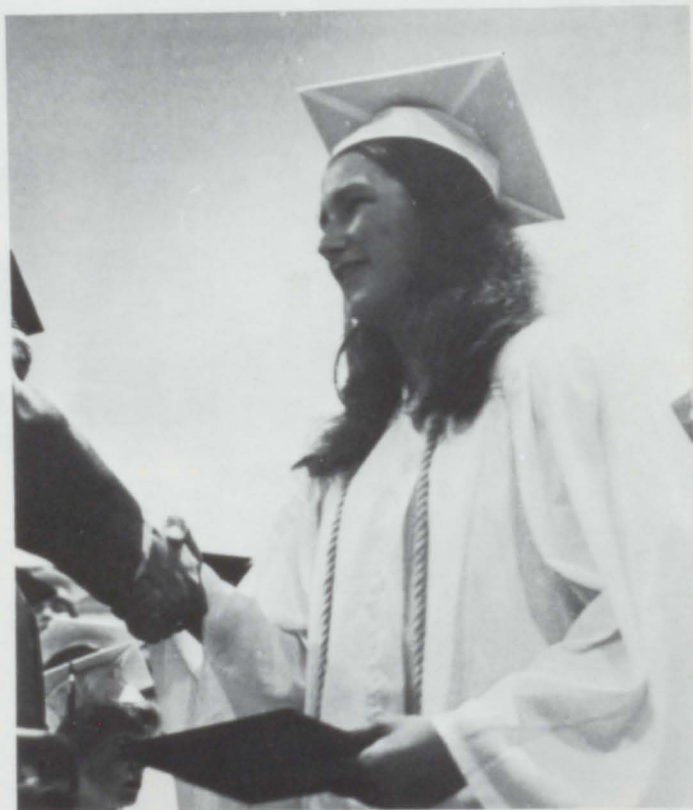

Sue Allard listens intently.

THE 1981 VALEDICTORY GROUP — Michelle Mercier, Lori Denis, Jennifer Jahnke, Daniel Pierce, Jennifer Wallace-Brodeur, Susan Allard.

"High school is over?" asks Tim Tomasi.

Michelle Mercier receives her diploma.

Ladies first!

Freedom!

"Now that you know that we are basically competent ..."

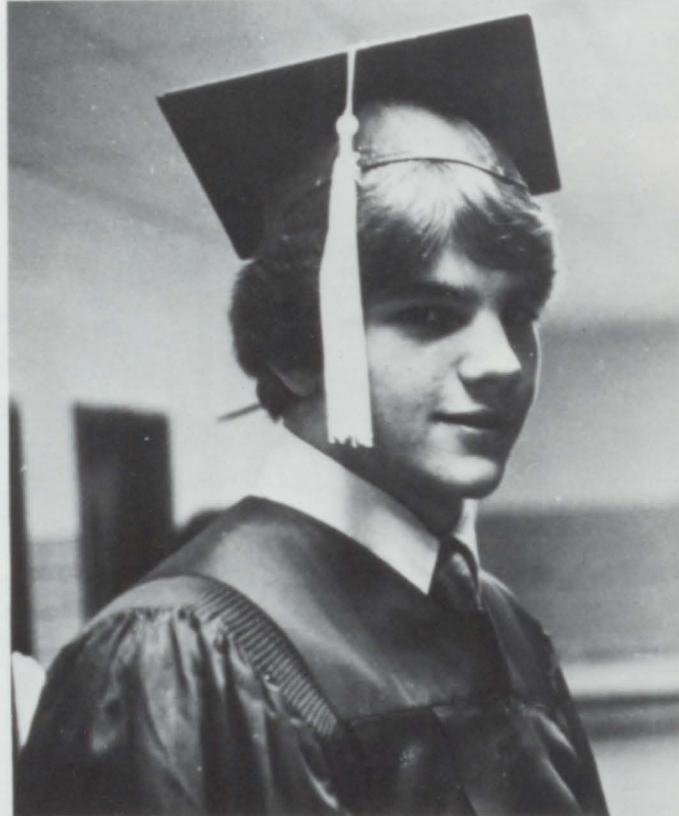

Matt Anderson flashes a graduate's grin.

Susan Donnelly and Todd Boucher drift off to the Netherlands.

Enjoying the prom are Pat Sikora and Julie Costello.

Barlow comes out of his shell.

You don't have to be a junior to have fun at the prom.

There was as much talking as dancing at the prom. Michele Frostick and John Gibson discuss their good times in '81.

1981 JUNIOR PROM COURT — Lee White, Lisa Slaybaugh, Dan Coburn, Janel Johnson, Queen Pam Collins, Peter Wasik, Ellen Peduzzi, Peter Canales, Meg Heney, Shannon Sweeney.

A lot of hard work was put into the prom, and it all paid off. Everyone came in formal dress and looked very nice. The decorations were outstanding — while they lasted. Overall, everyone had fun and participated in the activities.

Camelot

Tracey Ellis waits for a cue.

Tom Rivers, Sue Allard and Mr. Bate ask, "By the way, where am I, anyway?"

A cast of 31 students brought King Arthur and his Knights of the Round Table to life in April at M.H.S. The Masque's spring production also involved more than 40 people who helped make the sets and costumes, transforming the stage into a swirl of color and pomp.

The cast joins in as Sue Allard sings "The Lusty Month of May."

The queen and king of Camelot, Sue Allard and Brian Dufresne, inspect their kingdom.

"I'm simply the best by far," boasts Tim Tomasi.

All was well in Camelot, the mythical land of King Arthur (Brian Dufresne) and Queen Guenevere (Sue Allard) until Lancelot (Tim Tomasi) arrived from France. Lancelot was disliked by the members of the court, so a joust with the strongest Knights of Camelot was set up for him. To the dismay of the court, Lancelot won all three contests and won the respect of the court.

Lancelot and Guenevere, of course, fell in love and were discovered together by Mordred (Shawn Sweeney), King Arthur's illegitimate son. Guenevere was sentenced to burn, but Lancelot, who had escaped Mordred, rescued her and brought her back to France with him.

The story ended on the battlefield in France where Arthur and Lancelot had to reluctantly lead armies against each other.

Greetings From Switzerland

Hi!

The Swiss Group stopped in Paris and we saw the Eiffel Tower before spending a long night on the train to Geneva. Mr. and Mrs. Saccos really sacked out!

In Geneva we saw the Jet D'eau, the harbor fountain, a chocolate factory and had a reception with the Mayor of Geneva!

One of the many stops on the Close-Up trip to Washington, D.C. was the Lincoln Memorial. Beneath Honest Abe are J. Johnson, D. McMullen, L. Lyons, D. Provost, Advisor Mr. Duesing, S. Sweeney.

Spring Sports

Girls' Tennis

The girls' tennis team took over where they left off last year, compiling a 12-2 record overall, narrowly missing a trip to the state finals. Although the team lost in the semi-finals 4-3 to Mt. St. Joseph, they will be a rough team to contend with next year.

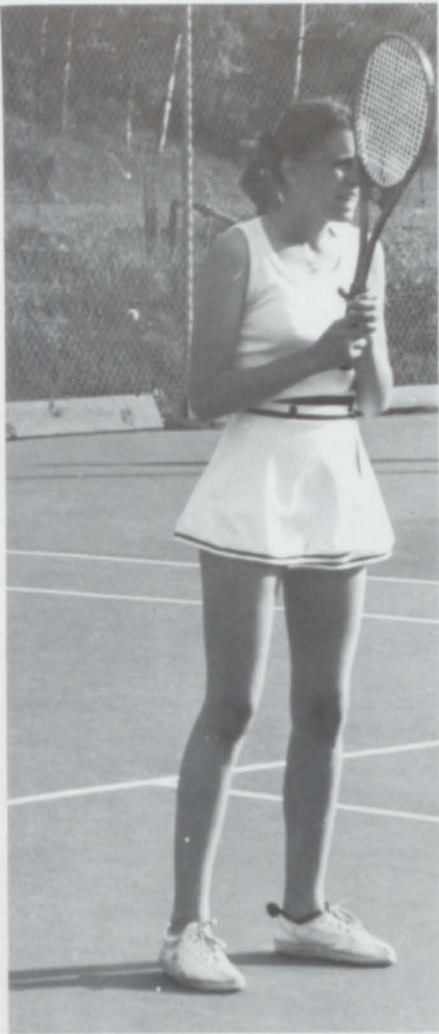

GIRLS— First Row: C. Cummings, L. Cody, J. Bolkum, B. Lipman, K. Doyle, K. Montgomery, J. Costello. Second Row: Coach Wiley, A. Lincoln, J. Graves, C. Lyons, M. Heney, J. Pryce, K. Keene.

Boys' Tennis

The boys' tennis team, despite having lost five seniors last year, still finished the 1981 season with an 8-5 record. Although they lost in the quarter-finals to South Burlington, they still ended the season with style and great expectations for next year.

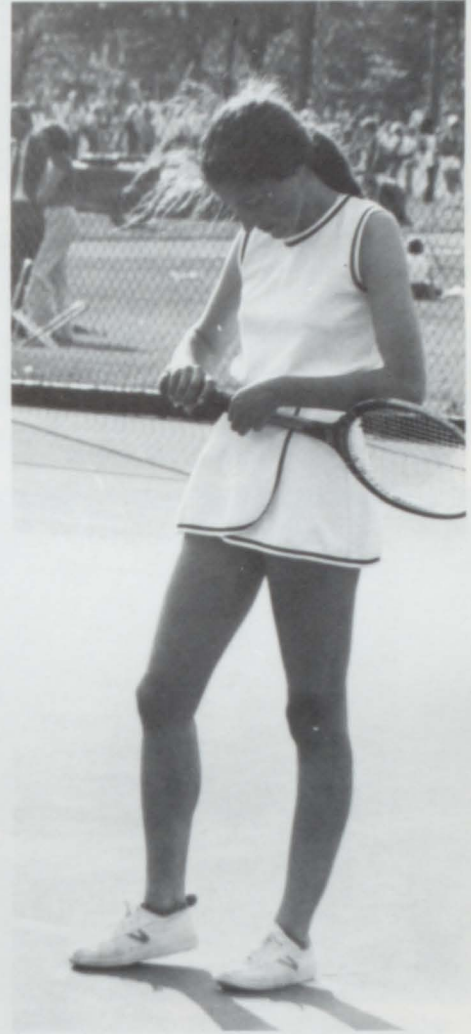

BOYS— First Row: F. Costello, D. O'Brien, K. Demingware. Second Row: B. Lamphere, K. Doyle, R. Stillson, G. Molander, J. Anders.

Watch the ball, Cady, not the racket!!!

Dimple in chin, devil within.

Julie Pryce concentrates before an important game.

The "Incredible Hulk" O'Brien ...

Softball

Indoor workouts for both varsity and J.V. teams began in mid-March. They were tough, but they paid off. The J.V. team, with 11 freshmen and seven sophomores, had a good season, ending up in May with an 8-7 record.

The game the varsity probably will remember most is the win against Northfield on their field. The Solons came from behind and scored the necessary seven runs in the top of the 7th to go ahead and win the game 12-11. The varsity should be a strong team next year with only six seniors leaving. Hopefully, the 10 tough juniors will capably fill those mighty slots.

A smile like this tells people you've been up to something

I knew we were a MEAN, green, fighting machine, but this is ridiculous!

Take that, Spaulding!

Day, Shepard and Demingware take it easy.

Baseball

Although the Solon baseball record wasn't anything to write home about (3-13), the '81 season did have many bright spots. Team members played with spirit, and whether they lost or won, they always remained true sportsmen to the finish. Fans hope next year's crew will produce a winning season.

Track

The Solon boys had an excellent year, finishing 8-0 in dual meets. They were led by a fine group of senior captains, Eddie Brigham, Matt Peterson and Carl List, and won the Southern District and finished second behind St. Johnsbury in the state meet. During the spring, records were broken and meets were won, but the coaches and fans will always remember this team for its cooperation, enthusiasm and friendship.

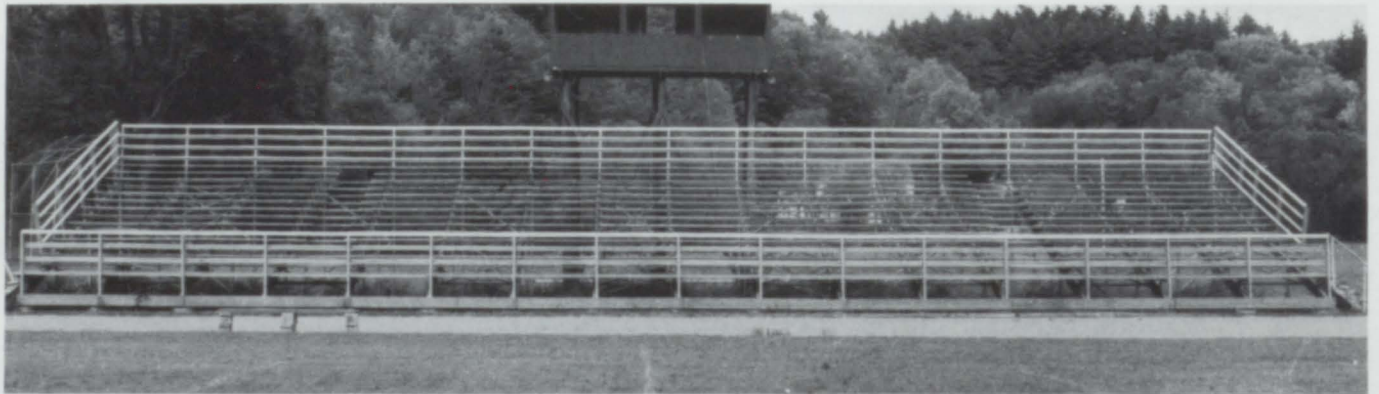

The girls had a tough year, competing with mostly Class L teams and ending their season with a 4-6 record. They were fourth in the Class I states. The girls were well led by co-captains Carleen Pembroke and Lori Denis, and each runner concentrated on personal records and accomplishments. One exceptional runner, Lori Denis, finished second in the state in the 400-meter dash. She also won the 100-meter dash and the 200-meter dash. The team is looking for a good year in 1982.

Golf

Through strong individual performances, the golf team was able to come in third at the district meet. Much credit should be given to the first female to join the golf team in years, Julie Messier. A highlight of the season was the end-of-the-season presentation of the "bloody ball" award to member Tom Rivers for his particularly brutal game.
