HIGHLIGHTS

1983
RECORD

During the school year, the people of M.H.S. always find things to do that fit in with the changing seasons.

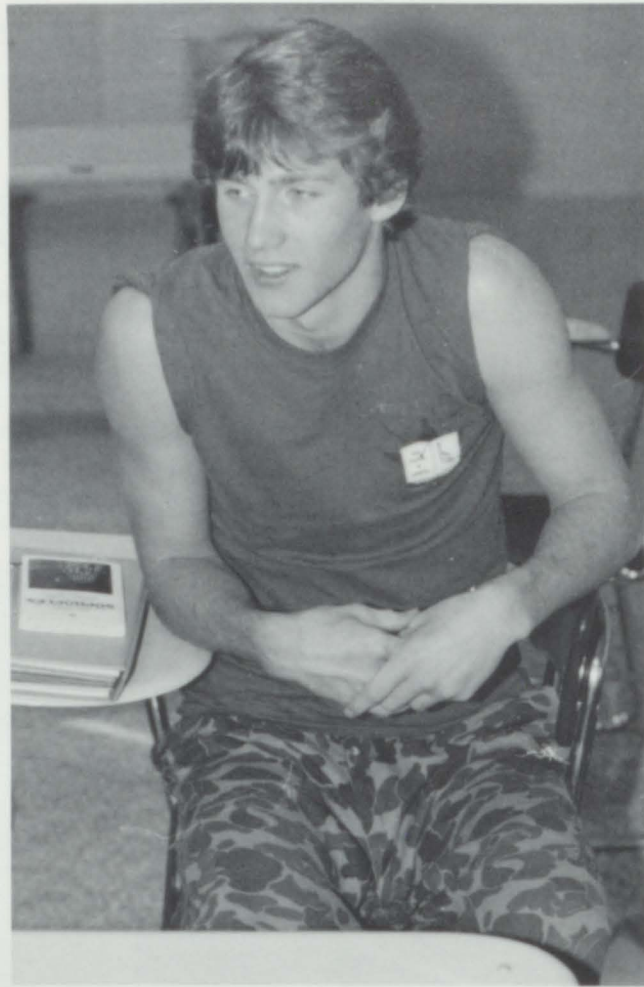

In the fall, tradition brings us Homecoming, Nature brings us colorful leaves, and Masque puts on its first play (Blythe Spirit).

In the winter, skiing is a major pastime and the Christmas Ball adds a lot of class.

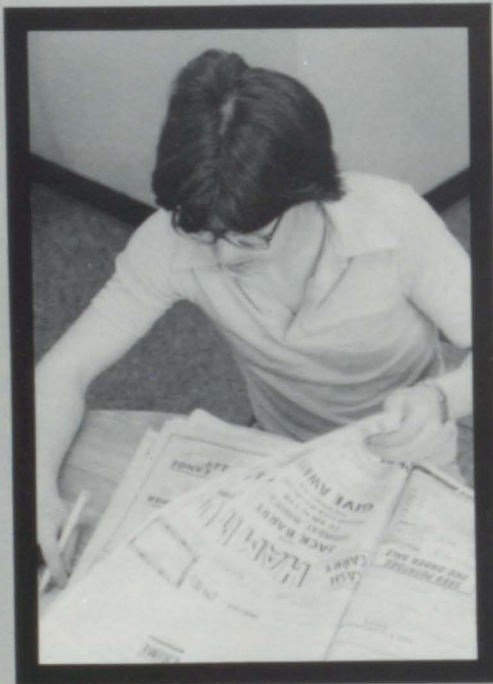

In the spring, the prom, spring play (Jesus Christ Superstar), and finally graduation all make for a good end to a great year.

EVERY DAY WE ...

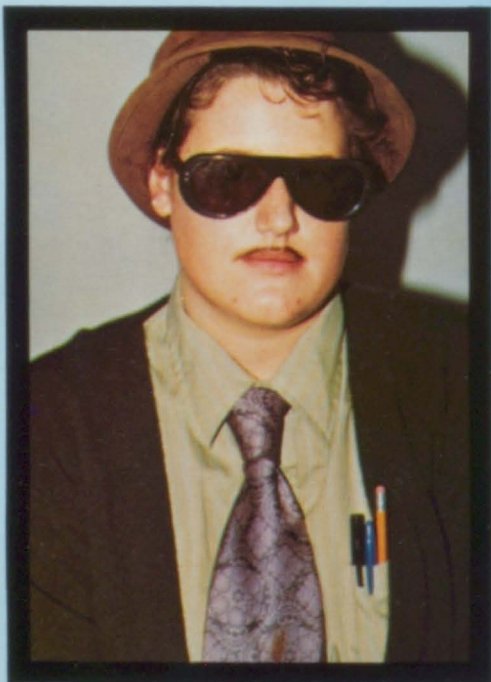

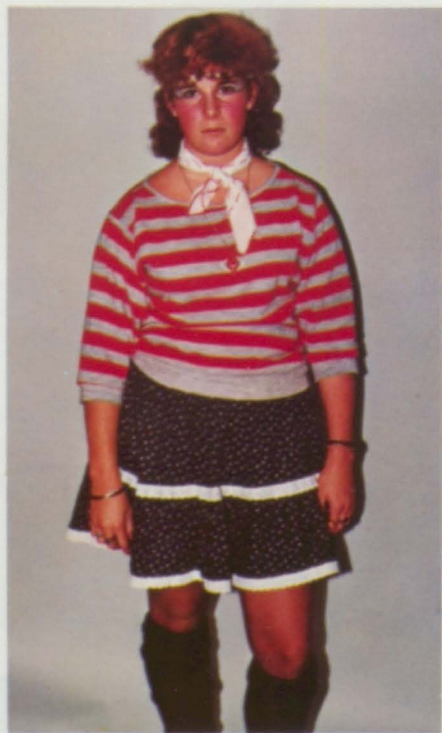

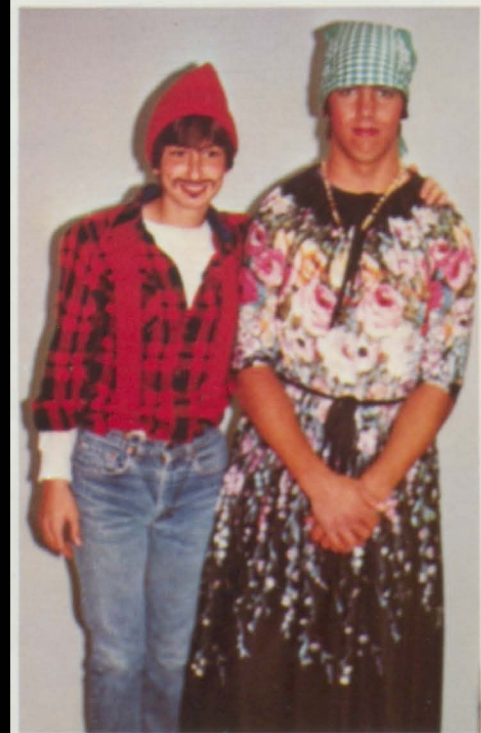

Far Left: Greg Wagner spends some free time during the day to catch up on the local news. Top Left: Shannon Sweeney listens carefully to the daily morning announcements. Bottom Left: Hungry Solons line up to purchase hot lunch and snacks. Middle: Solons bundle up to go home. Near Left: Tim Alibrandi spends part of his day reading in the quiet study area. Above Top: Happening daily in the cafeteria, Solons study, socialize, and eat. Above Middle: Julie Messier opens her locker many times during the day. Above: Mike Ruby battles through another difficult calculus test.

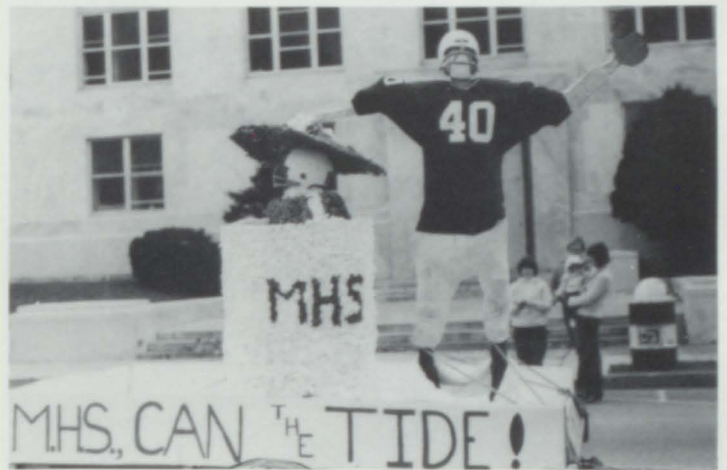

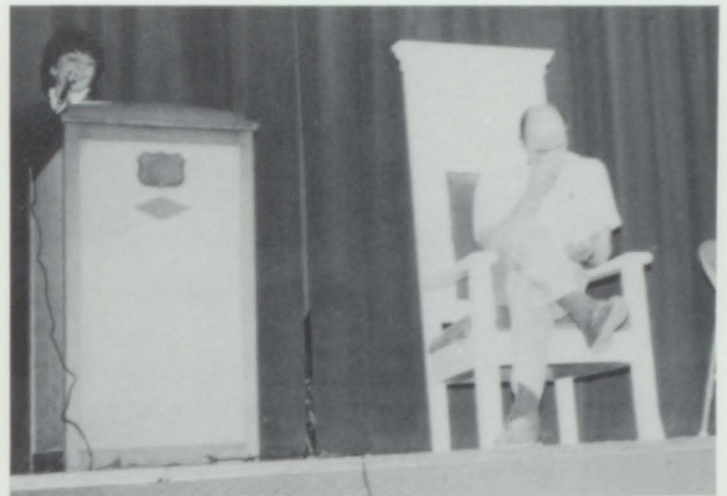

GOING CRAZY

GOING

Far Left: David Wright escorts Carol Aja in the Homecoming parade. Top: Reliving their freshmen reception are seniors Kathy Ramsay, Carol Aja, Lilli Bashara. Bottom: Seniors give it their all during the traditional pep rally. Above Top: Amy Lincoln and Suzanne Barrett listen to strategy for Powder Puff football game. Above: Freshmen, led by seniors, parade through the halls as underclassmen and faculty welcome them. Upper Right: Mr. Morrison is embarrassed when his past is revealed during "This Is Your Life." Lower Right: Hard work by the sophomores produced the winning float.

HOMECOMING EVENTS

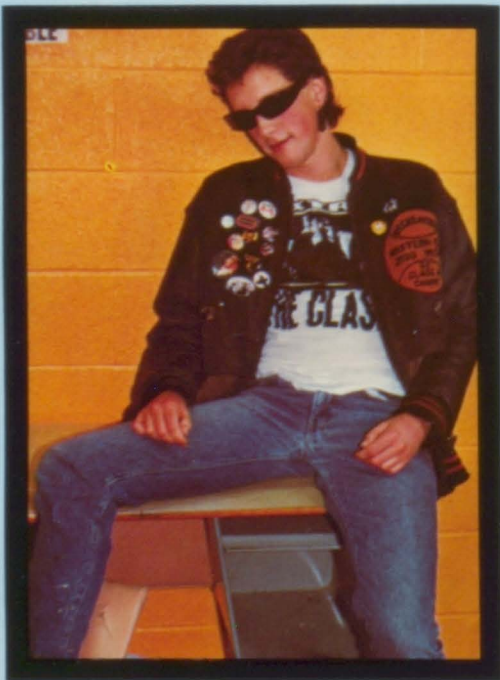

| EVENT | WINNING CLASS |
|-------------------------------|---------------|
| 1. Powder Puff Football | Seniors |
| 2. Soccer | Seniors |
| 3. Hide The Tide | Seniors |
| 4. Drag Day | Juniors |
| 5. Hush Day | Seniors |
| 6. Punk Day | Juniors |
| 7. Pep Rally | Juniors |
| 8. Float | Sophomores |

Boys dressed as girls! Girls dressed as boys! This year during Homecoming week dressing drag was not uncommon. The halls were filled with interpretations of the opposite sex.

The week invited Solons to partake in different events each day. If dressing punk and drag was a little too much, Solons were welcome to slide in the mud playing football and soccer or yell their lungs out at the pep rally. The week carried many memories including the football team's winning game over Spaulding and a winning season.

GOING NUTS

CHRISTMAS BALL

Far Left: Queen, Carol Aja and escort, Steve Taylor, spend lots of time on the dance floor. Left: Kim Coghlan and Joe Canales promenade during the Christmas Ball March. Top Left: Lori Shepard and Jay Mullen take time out to relax. Top Middle: Couples entered the Ball in style. Top Right: Robin Coletti and Dave Provost head toward the dance floor. Bottom Middle: Couples look on as "8084" plays their music.

Couples entered this year's Christmas Ball over a newly built bridge and into the gym, which was transformed into a dance hall filled with decorations and the music of "8084". Even though the grass was brown outside, the Ball lifted everyone's spirits during the holiday season.

SMALL TOWN LIVING

Searching for sales, maintaining jobs and taking in town events are all part of Montpelier's small town living. The students of M.H.S. play an active role in keeping the town alive. By producing plays, running the annual parade, and even by taking daily strolls, Montpelier's youth add to the life of Montpelier.

Top Right: A.F.S. student, Lukretia Klaiber, spends time with her new tour guide exploring the small town of Montpelier during the autumn season. Above: Teresa Segale takes advantage of sales while checking out new fashions. Bottom Right: Students crowd the corners to watch the annual Homecoming parade.

DEDICATION

We, the graduating Class of 1983, dedicate this year's Record to a person, who for the past five years, has worked on and devoted many long hours to previous yearbooks. He has been both a friend and a teacher whose effervescent personality and smiling face made each day a little brighter. This dedication recalls the time he spent with us at M.H.S. prior to his entering a new career this year.

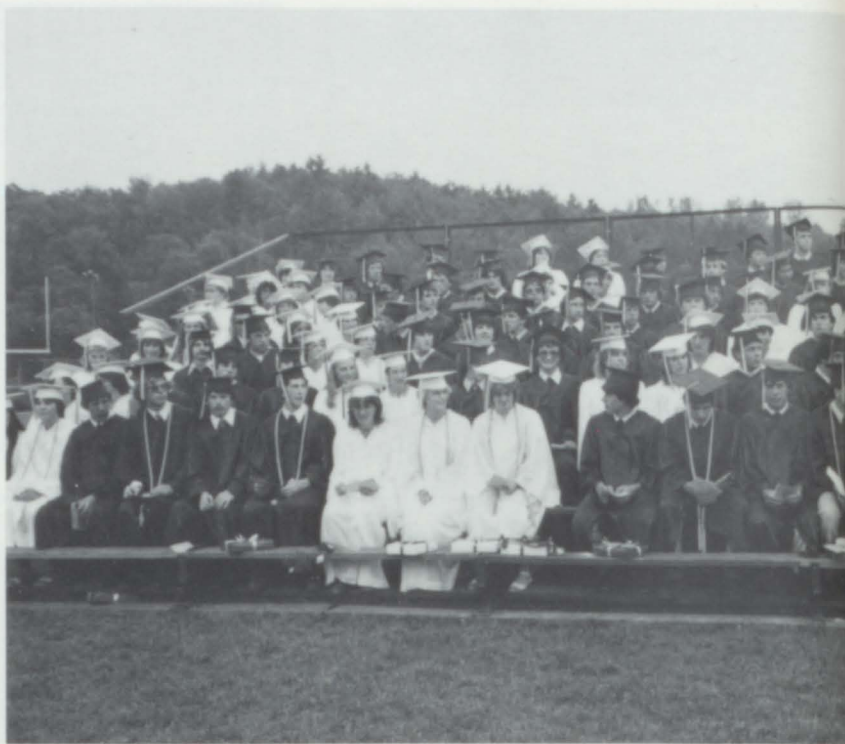

We wish him the best of luck in his new endeavors, and we dedicate this yearbook to . . .

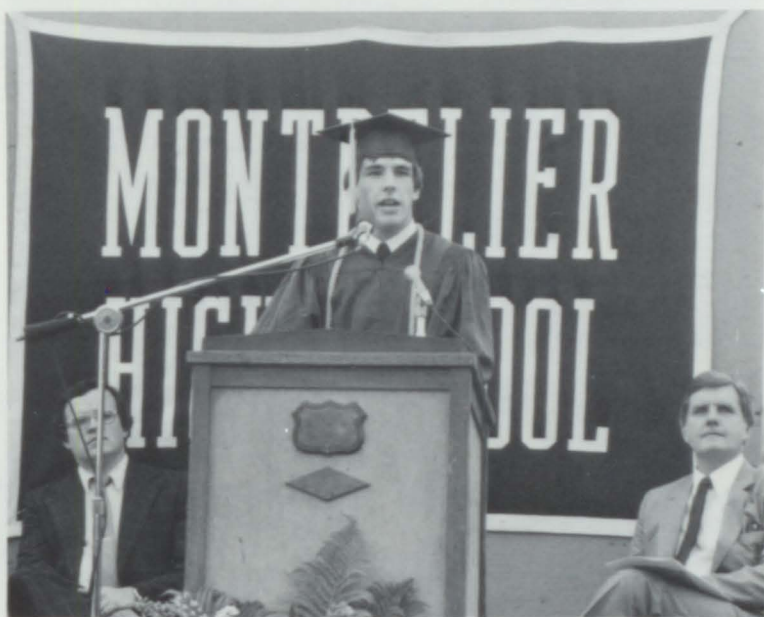

Mr. Bruce Talbot

GRADUATION JUNE 17, 1983

Once again, fingers were crossed and eyes occasionally glanced upward as the 1983 graduation ceremony was held outside under storm-threatening clouds. The weather held, however, throughout the two-hour exercises while hundreds of parents, relatives, and friends watched members of the Class of 1983 receive their diplomas. Numerous awards and scholarships were proudly announced by Principal, Mr. Jacobs, and brief speeches were delivered by members of the Valedictory Group. Applause from the crowd and a whoop from the graduates clearly marked the end of a terrific graduation.

Top Left: The Class of 1983 attempt to make a formation of an "M". Top Right: Smiles are shared by all as the graduates head for the stands. Above: Rob Tucker is one member of the Valedictory Group to speak at graduation. Left: Mixed expressions are shown by graduates during the ceremony. Bottom Left: Ms Phillips lends a helping hand as Kathy Buzzzell prepares to be seen by hundreds of people. Upper Left: Suzanne Barrett and Linda Blow arrive for their final hours as M.H.S. students.

Juniors worked hard for Homecoming 1982. They had a lot of fun making their float. Unfortunately, they did not win. Juniors did win the yelling contest and have yelled louder than the seniors for two years in a row.

The juniors started the year with limited funds but quickly increased their treasury by holding a successful dance-a-thon in March. The theme chosen for the spring prom was "Free Bird," a song by Lynard Skynard, which captured the spirit of the entire class. In addition to sponsoring the prom at National Life, another highlight of the year for juniors was receiving class rings, and taking the S.A.T. exam.

Sophomores made themselves heard this year when they tied with the juniors in the yelling contest during the homecoming pep rally, which the juniors eventually won. However, the sophomores got their revenge by having the winning float in the homecoming parade.

Sophomores also had the opportunity to buy class rings, participate in the Hugh O'Brien Foundation Scholarship, and try their luck on the P.S.A.T.

The "step up" from junior high school to senior high school can be an awesome experience. This year's class of freshmen seemed to have adjusted smoothly to the routine of study halls and accepted the freshmen initiation with good spirit.

Freshmen are given the Differential Aptitude Test through the Guidance Office. The tests consist of career-oriented questions; therefore, the results show students' career interests. This test helps the guidance counselors schedule freshmen for their sophomore to senior years.

M.H.S. has courses of study that aim to meet the varied needs of its students. There are standard graduation requirements, traditional college prep courses, and advanced studies in science and math areas. Individualized programs are often arranged for foreign language study, special education, and developmental and remedial language arts programs. Social studies offers everything from geography and history to a course dealing with the practical side of adult life — world of work, marriage, and parenting. Computer basics, secretarial, and accounting skills can be acquired through business courses. Fine arts can be studied through the music and art programs. Health, exercise, group and solo recreational activities are all part of the physical education program. Both male and female students may enroll in industrial arts programs, outdoor survival, and various home/family oriented programs that center around skills of daily living.

Charles B. Johnson

Edwin H. Jacobs

There will be a big change not only around M.H.S. next year, but in the district as well. Charles Johnson, long-time educator and Superintendent of Schools in Montpelier for ten years, is leaving that position for semi-retirement. Mr. Johnson will not have a life of total leisure, however. He is expected to do some part-time teaching and consultation work within school districts. Ed Jacobs, Principal of M.H.S. for six years, will assume the duties of Superintendent on July 1, 1983. He cites budget and curriculum concerns as major areas for his future focus. Both men are sure to have new challenges and are wished the best of luck in their new situations.

Many M.H.S. students achieved rather special and unique honors and goals this year. Shown here are just some of those individuals. Far Left: Eileen Geagan and Shannon Sweeney were selected as Senior Athletes of the Year by the entire coaching staff. Middle: Arne List strikes the kind of pose that won him three first place honors in the Mr. Vermont Scholastic, a contest for high-school-age body builders. Francis earned the State Championship for Cross-Country in the fall, and the 3000 Meter in the spring, which broke a record. He has also broken numerous course records. Below Left: Mr. Aja was proud to accompany Eileen Geagan to Washington, D.C. as a specially invited guest when Eileen became this high school's first U.S. Presidential Scholar. Below Right: Bob McLeod was nominated and selected to be M.H.S.'s only participant in the Governor's Institute on Science. This honor program is designed for outstanding and promising freshmen science students.

Varsity Football Finishes 6-3

The Varsity football team began the season with a smashing 45-0 victory over Lebanon. This win set the pace for a fine 6-3 record. Unfortunately, the J.V. and Freshman teams did not do fantastically well. They both finished with 3-5 records.

The Varsity field hockey team had a rough year with a 3-8-3 record. They met many tough teams, but did their best.

The J.V. team had a much better season. They compiled a 7-3-4 record and show much promise for next year.

While both teams were hit by costly injuries, players rallied to fill the gaps left by sidelined teammates.

Cross Teams Place in States

Something For Everyone In Clubs and Activities

M.H.S. offers a variety of activities and clubs for just about everyone seeking out of class fun and socializing. There's Masque and Stage Crew for those drawn to stage productions. There are activities for students interested in musical events. Several clubs and service groups all add to the richness of M.H.S. and community life. Participation in such groups continues to be an important part of a high school experience and a guaranteed way to make new friends.

Lights! Camera! Action!

Masque produced two completely different plays this year — a drama in the fall, "Blithe Spirit," with few cast members and a rock musical, "Jesus Christ Superstar," with many cast members in the spring. Such productions develop public speaking abilities, foster talent, and build self-confidence. In addition to performers, the assistants behind the scenes are vital because drama emphasizes the importance of working as a team.

The Halls Are Alive With The Sound of Music

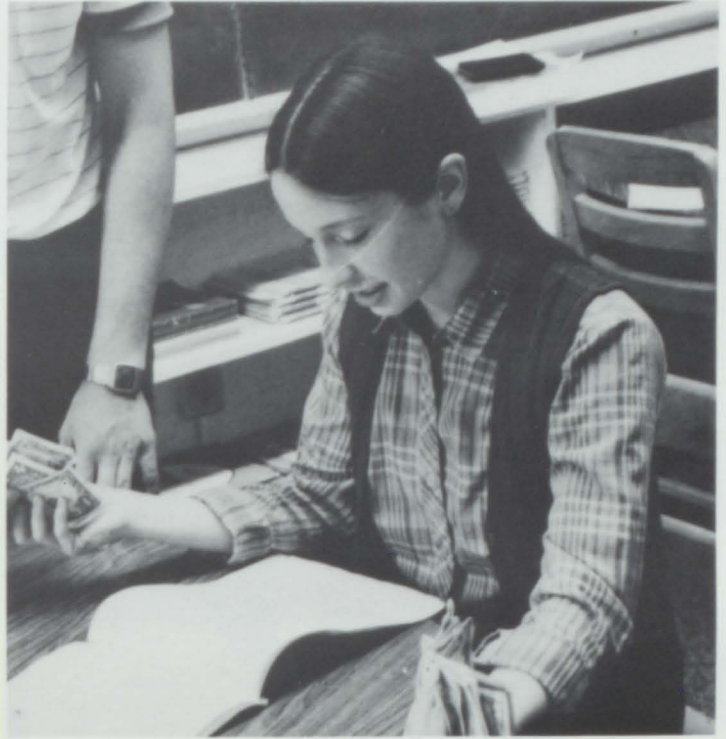

A new Director of Music arrived at M.H.S. this year, Mr. Perkins, who really kept music activities at a high pitch. The formal Concert Band and smaller Jazz Ensemble had several performances. Collegium was active and sported attractive new outfits. Musicians and singers helped greatly with the success of Jesus Christ Superstar, and the chorus group had a fun exchange with Terryville High School in Connecticut. In all, students interested in enhancing their talents had many opportunities in musical areas while keeping the halls of M.H.S. alive with the sound of their music.

Yearbook Daze

It was a rough year for the RECORD. Monetary difficulties, changes in the basic organization of staff, lack of commitment, and disinterest on the part of many original staff members almost contributed to total cancellation of this yearbook's production last March. Staff shown here stuck through their responsibilities and made it possible to have a RECORD after all.

Joachim Bjurfors of Sweden and Lukretia Klaiber of Germany spent a year in this country learning about U.S. and Vermont life. As students at M.H.S., both took part in extra curricular activities. Lukretia did well in Debate, while Joachim's interests were in sports. He was known by fellow golfers as the "Swingin' Swede" and is shown below with Mr. Drew trying to explain how that ball wound up where it did. Both our visitors spoke at graduation and agreed that their experiences while living here and going to school here were memorable.

Closing Words . . .

This year was not easy for the staff of the Montpelier High School Record. Our original plans were gradually changed by a long list of misfortunes. The resignation of one advisor who changed careers, the disinterest of some staff members, and the irresponsibility of others hurt the yearbook as a whole. These unfortunate circumstances had to be dealt with and resolved. I feel that these problems were solved in the best possible ways.

Looking back at all those problems and hours of work, I realize that the 1983 Record is a book of which we can be proud.

1983 RECORD

Closing Words

The year was not easy for the staff of the Record. We had to deal with a number of changes in our organization of our work. There were several new staff who joined during the year, and we were able to accomplish our objectives. We were able to bring out a number of new projects and to work with our advertisers to bring out new products and services. We were able to bring out a new design for our cover pages.
