MR. CHARLES TAYLOR
Superintendent of Barre City Schools

We Applaud Our Friendly Leaders

One of the main reasons why Barre's school system ranks so high in the state is the fact that Mr. Taylor is ever on the lookout for improvement. Due to his efforts, over 2100 students in six elementary schools have a well-balanced program of study which includes English, science, social studies, mathematics, and reading. Among the major improvements for which he is responsible are a new sprinkler system, classroom painting, and new flooring. Mr. Taylor's outside interests include working on Boy Scout committees and working around his house.

Whenever one thinks of Mr. Mayo, he immediately thinks of him as Spaulding's leading rooter. Not only is he present at every game and student activity, but he is always ready to talk with students who seek his advice, and he is on the alert for improvements of the school. Under his guidance, the enrollment has risen to over 900, and student government has been reinstated. He also has instituted courses in driving training, music appreciation, and consumer education. When he is not hard at work on the job, Mr. Mayo enjoys the sport of fly fishing.

IT MAY BE YOU

To you, the class of 1951, comes the privilege of graduating at a time when the country needs leaders and workers.

You may never surprise the world that is waiting and watching expectantly for leaders, and you may never have your name in a headline, but like the bicycle rider going up hill at night, you keep on because you cannot see how steep the hill is ahead.

On graduation day the world may not be waiting for you, but it is ready to make a place for you if you deserve it. Opportunity knocks every day, but you must be ready when the door opens.

Frank W. Mayo

Our Instructors Strive to Drill

English and electricity, mechanics and math, drafting and drama, you name it and it's probably covered in a Spaulding curriculum. Freshmen entering the portals of S.H.S. have a choice of everything from Shakespeare to Steinmetz, from Edison to Einstein, and from Virgil to El Cid.

Four courses, college prep, academic, commercial, and trade and industrial, are offered with English being the common denominator in all. In the first three courses, the predominating departments include mathematics (general math, algebra, plane geometry, and trigonometry), the foreign languages (Latin, French, and Spanish), the social studies (Modern and U.S. History,

SENIORS

OFF TO A FLYING START

The long awaited day has arrived! On September 3, 1947, we entered Spaulding to begin our high school career. Our first social event was the Freshman Reception held in September. After this, many events occurred: Student Council was revived; Larry Gregoire made varsity football; Freedom Train came to Montpelier; the Sentinel was chosen best school paper of its class in New England; final exams were held in April; and our class play, "The Telegram," took second place in the play contest. Our class officers were Bob Camire, Pres.; Anne Seaver, V.-Pres.; Dorothy Daniel, Sec.; and Jim Collins, Treas. J.V. cheerleaders were established this year with Jo Rossi, Betty Biggs, Pat Saliba, and Rose Tomasi being chosen. Jo and Eleanor were elected to be varsity cheerleaders. Majorettes chosen from our class were Joyce Scrizzi, Dorothy Daniel, Annette Bigras, and Mary Sassone.

Our class officers were Bob Camire, Pres.; Anne Seaver, Vice-Pres.; Dorothy Daniel, Sec.; James Collins, Treas.

P. Saliba, J. Rossi, R. Tomasi, E. Biggs, B. Biggs.

These J.V. cheerleaders really put pep into it when they led the cheers. They designed their own uniforms and each girl made her own.

The first time the Clown Band made its appearance was at a pep rally in the assembly hall before a basketball game.

Our School Life Begins To Accelerate

Our Class officers were Gary Corey; VicePres.; Fred Ziter, Sec., Marion Spooner, Treas.; Eleanor Biggs, Pres.

Sophomores already! This year included equally as many events as our first year: our football team took the State Championship; we chose our class ring of gold and black onyx; Mr. Martin came to Spaulding as our new basketball coach; letter sweaters were given to deserving Varsity athletes; our Sophomore Hop, held on November 5, 1948, with music by the Reveleers, was a huge success; the first Clown Band was originated; the Student Council gave the first Winter Carnival; the Sentinel was chosen the best school paper in Vermont; and pay assemblies were started at dear old S.H.S. Our class officers were: Eleanor Biggs, Pres.; Gary Corey V.-Pres.; Fred Ziter, Sec.; and Marion Spooner, Treas. Although our class play, "What's in a Name," with Alita Rubalcaba, Pat Clark, Dorothy Gherardi, Charles Wallace, Roger Anzalone, and George Lucchina, didn't win a prize, it was still good.

This picture shows the elaborate and beautiful decorations at our never-to-be forgotten Junior Prom, which was held on May 12, 1950.

Bob Camire goes in for a lay-up in the thrilling state championship game against M.S.J. of Rutland which was held at the auditorium.

STILL GOING STRONG

Here we are, upperclassmen! This year contained loads of exciting doings: a driver training course was started under the instruction of Mr. Lyman; we took the Northern League Championship in football; a junior home room, 114B, won the Home Room Basketball Tournament; our basketball team took the state championship after a thrilling game (48-46) against M.S.J. of Rutland, but lost in the New England Tournament to Somerville, Mass. (56-45); our baseball team won the Northern League Championship; and our class play, "Jacob Comes Home," came in second in the play contest, with Richard Parnigoni, Pat Clark, Rena Gusmai, Molly Langevin, and Roger Anzalone giving an excellent performance. Our class officers were Betty Biggs, Pres.; Bob Camire, V.-Pres.; Robert Moody, Sec.; and Mary Sassone, Treas. The Lighthouse, our teen-age center, was established through the tireless efforts of our own Tom Snyder. Our Junior Prom, held on May 12, 1950 was elaborate with blue and silver decorations.

Our class officers were Mary Jean Sassone, Treas.; Betty Biggs, Pres.; Bob Camire, Vice-Pres.; Gary Corey, Sec.

These are the people who planned, decorated and literally did all the work on our Junior Prom.

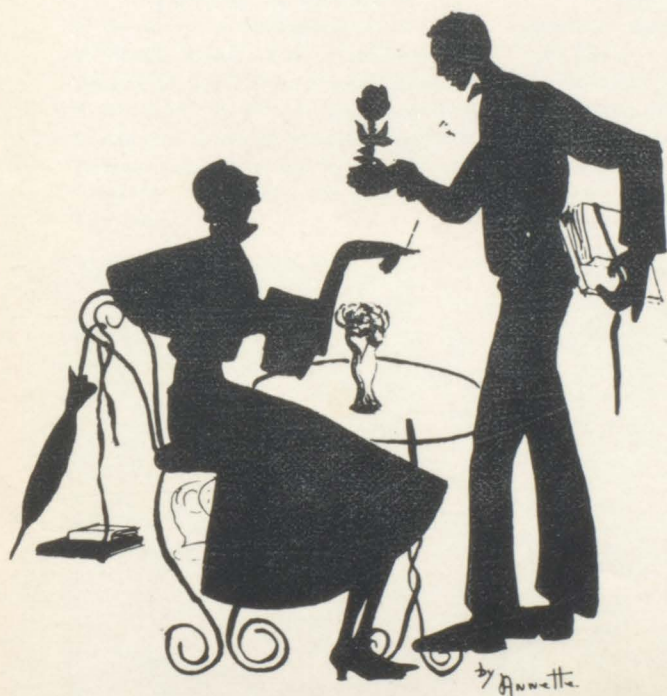

In room 203, Eleanor Biggs, Joan Starr, and Jo Rossi talk over the latest gossip and school happenings.

Our class officers were Alan McLam, Pres.; Dick Tomasini, Treas.; Flora Messier, Vice-Pres.; Clarice Cella, Sec.

WE APPROACH OUR GOAL

"Mac", who transferred from Bradford after his sophomore year, has made himself widely known in the field of athletics. This fall he was chosen halfback on the All-State Football team. Although Al was laid up with a broken vertebra after football season, he came back to play some terrific basketball and then to play varsity baseball. With his winning smile and pleasing personality, "Mac" has made us a wonderful president. Flora has the very commendable ability of getting after things and getting them done. She has proved to be a very efficient vice-president. "Mickey," our class secretary, can usually be found in or around the Sentinel office as she is news editor. Her ever ready "Hi" has won her a score of friends. Last but not least, Dick, our treasurer, has been busy this year by being President of Glee Club and President of Student Council. With his friendly attitude and persuasive way, Dick has been a big asset in raising class dues.

Best of everything in the future - Louie

Best of Luck

Second Generation

This year, our class of 1951, has one of the largest groups of second generation members ever to graduate from Spaulding. There are thirty-seven members whose mothers and fathers one or both graduated in former years. Of these there are ten members whose parents both were graduated. Among these is one of our editors, Eleanor Biggs, whose mother, Lucy Wells Biggs, class of 1920 was also the editor of her Echo.

Yes, this is the Echo Board, all at work in familiar room 112. The day this picture was taken, we were deeply concerned about our financial condition. Through food sales, selling of class pins, and various other means, additional money was raised.

Ever try to chronicle everything of importance done by 180 people during four of the most exciting years of their lives? It's not an easy task, especially when it has to be done in spare time. 1951's Echo staff was faced by the perennial bane of yearbook planners — lack of time — plus an unforeseen roadblock—a financial deficit running well into four figures.

Alternately harried by editorial and monetary worries, the Echo Staff labored for five hectic months. The fruit of this work is seen on these pages.

STUDENT COUNCIL AND MONITORS

The Student Council is the governing body of the school. It is a democratic organization consisting of representatives from all home rooms. Matters needing consideration and affairs concerning the whole school are set before the Student Council.

The monitors are the policemen of the halls. These seniors prevent collisions by dividing the traffic into distinct right and left paths. Many students are thankful for the monitors' help and directions on the first confused days of their freshman year.

Good clean fun was one main purpose of our week at Boy's State, and all of our boys had just that. Also much was learned about state government and how officers are elected. All boys took part in the government and in the activities of our state. A singular honor for Spaulding was the election of Harris Yett as lieutenant governor.

Our representatives were N. Brassard, B. Camire, J. Collins, G. Corey, J. Dell'Amico, J. Dernavich, L. Gehlback, A. McLam, R. Parnigoni, G. Pearlstein and H. Yett.

Relaxing Girls' State Style, the girls got caught with a flash.

Representing Spaulding at the 1950 session of Green Mountain Girl's State, held from June 25 to July 1 at Vermont Junior College in Montpelier, were Betty Biggs, Eleanor Biggs, Dorothy Gherardi, Jo Rossi, Mary Jean Sassone, and Marion Spooner. Girl's State is sponsored by the Auxiliary of the American Legion and the week is spent teaching the girls Parliamentary procedure in order to prepare them to be better future citizens of our country.

THERE'S MUSIC IN THE AIR

mason - 1953

The new director, Mrs. Victoria Boyce, opened the 1950-51 season of the Glee Club on September 25. The new officers elected were Paul Tomasini, Pres.; Dorothy Gherardi, V.-Pres.; Mary Martin, Sec.; and Kay Gaylord, Treas.

The annual Christmas concert was presented at the Barre Auditorium for the entire student body. The Christmas Story was narrated by Eleanor Biggs with the traditional carols sung between the verses of the Scriptures by a girls' chorus, a boys' group, and the Glee Club. The secular part the program followed with the singing of "The Night Before Christmas," "White Christmas," and others. "Amid the Silence" was directed by the composer, Geraldine Dagget Lynde. The Spaulding Band accompanied the Glee Club for several selections.

NATURALLY SHARP

The spring concert was presented for the public at the Auditorium on April 13th. The outstanding numbers presented were a choral selection from "Brigadoon," a group of Negro Spirituals, and the closing "We Stand," a patriotic number, which was truly inspiring.

Accompanists for the Glee Club were Anne Seaver and Patricia Culver.

Attending All-State chorus were Anne Vigneault, Joan Rusling, Flora Messier, Mary Martin, Marguerite Pinard, Roger Anzalone, Robert Camire, William Gladding, and John Dervavich.

Two of the accompanists, Anne Seaver and Pat Culver, are busily working out a passage in the music for the spring concert.

Brahms & Boogie Woogie-Orchestra

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Mori, was seen at the Senior Play and Inter-Class Play Contest, where the music helped to set the mood for these presentations. Music was also provided for graduation by this group. The new books of music by Jerome Kern were greatly enjoyed by the orchestra which played many of Kern's selections at the annual spring concert. Those participating in the All-State Orchestra were Leslie Blanchard, Judith Pasetto, Marlene Nelson, Rinald LaFaille, Richard Blanchard, Kay Gaylord. Eugene Galfetti, Alan Walker, Richard Tomasini, Rena Gusmai, Constance Blow, and Harris Yett.

Mr. Mori, sweating it out, is trying to get from the band some music that somewhat resembles boogie-woogie, but it seems that the band members like to keep their talent in this line hidden.

Strike Up the Band

The band had a very successful year, appearing at both the Christmas concert and the Annual spring concert. At almost every home football and basketball game, these Spaulding musicians were found cheering the team to victory and entertaining the crowd with their music. The band also played at several civic functions, including the send-off for the National Guard. In January a concert was given in Waterbury to aid in establishing a new high-school band there. Representing the band at All-State Festival were Dean Campbell, Dorothy Palmer, Donald Lawliss, Jean Lamson, and Joann Reed.

The crowd listens to the band sound forth at a basketball game.

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a Republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovtreign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of Freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my Country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

WE PRESENT A TIMELY COMEDY

AMERICAN PASSPORT OR AMERICA PREFERRED

By Faith Linsley

The senior play, "American Passport," by Dana Thomas, was presented on November 9 and 10. Whether intended or not, it was a perfect conclusion to the activities of American Education Week. Although a "family" play, plentifully sprinkled with the amusing squabbles of family life, "American Passport" is fundamentally patriotic and exposes the shortsighted beliefs of Reds and parlor pinks. It was refreshing to find at the end of the play that poor old behind-the-times Pop was the real patriot and that Son and Daughter, the parlor pinks, had seen the error of their ways.

Dick Parnigoni was excellent as Ed Hamilton, the hen-pecked (and chicken-pecked) father. He gave a vivid presentation of a man who, fumbling at first, gradually hits his stride and converts not only his family but the entire neighborhood to his own brand of Americanism.

Anne Seaver (Bertha Hamilton) did a consistently even job in her misguided efforts to "unite the women of the world." (Pretty tall order!) Especially good was the scene in which she talked up to her husband's employer, at the same time twitching away from distracted Ed, who tried to keep her from losing his job. (He didn't succeed.)

Rehearsals and grueling hours over poor lines are through . . . and the cast is enjoying the reward.

Pat Clark, as Judy Hamilton, and George Pearlstein, as her brother Dick, had the difficult task of orating frequently on their idealistic beliefs. For the most part they were serious and convincing and finally made an even more convincing confession of their mistakes.

Janie Drennan (Syb Jennings), in love with Dick, gave a smooth performance of a girl anxious to pull her boy-friend out of his over-serious outlook. She was suitably rewarded—with Dick, minus his inflated ego.

Alan McLam (Bill Wilson) was a distinct hit from the time he made his cave-man entrance and threw his loved one onto the divan to the moment when Judy dissolved in his arms. Wealthy or not, Alan would have been "a catch in any season."

Cynthia Cabrini looked and acted the part of Aunt Jen, who clattered in occasionally to wave her fortune in the face of her nephew and his family. There must be plenty of holes in the Spaulding stage, the effect of Aunt Jen's cane and Pop's putting his foot down.

As for that brat Louella (Betty Biggs), Pop should never have given his strap to Bill; he should have used it on his nosey daughter. That, however, would have had no effect on her appetite. (When Betty's playbook was borrowed by this reviewer, the pages were found stuck together. Lollypop?) One typographical error in the play reads, "You're going to get your just DESSERTS for that speech." That is just what Louella was looking for—"desserts." Betty's antics drew plenty of laughs.

Two minor parts, Mrs. Schwartz, who objects to her neighbors, and Mr. Craig, Ed's boss, were capably taken by Lois Christie and Robert Smith.

French

The Thanksgiving Jamboree was a gay dance given by the French Club in the school gymnasium. President Marguerite Pinard presented an appropriate gift to Mrs. Elizabeth Westcott, French Club adviser, who was leaving Spaulding. In December the club broadcasted a Christmas radio program of carols sung in French.

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club is well known at Spaulding for its delicious refreshments, usually made by the girls themselves. This year the members helped give Christmas cheer to needy children by making clothes for dolls for the Santa Claus Club. The year's activities were led by President Ruth Wheeler.

J. C. L.

A Roman wedding was dramatized by members of the Junior Classical League at their November meeting. The club, led by George Lucchina, Consul, and Mary Lyons, Scriptor, showed slides of picturesque original Latin works to students studying Latin. Highlighting the December meeting was a Christmas play, "In Terra Pax," presented by the members.

Standing: R. Tucker, G. Pearlstein, C. Quinlan, C. Acker, L. Spencer, R. Parnigoni, W. Gladding. Second row: V. Carpenter, P. Garcia, R. Alzaga, K. Rudd, J. Starr, J

Spanish Club

Members of the Spanish Club really enjoyed preparing for their annual dance. They sold tickets enthusiastically, advertised with bright posters and sandwich signs, and spent hours of fun preparing typical Spanish decorations. The Christmas meeting featured a pinata filled with sweets for everyone, which was finally opened by a blindfolded member.

FTA

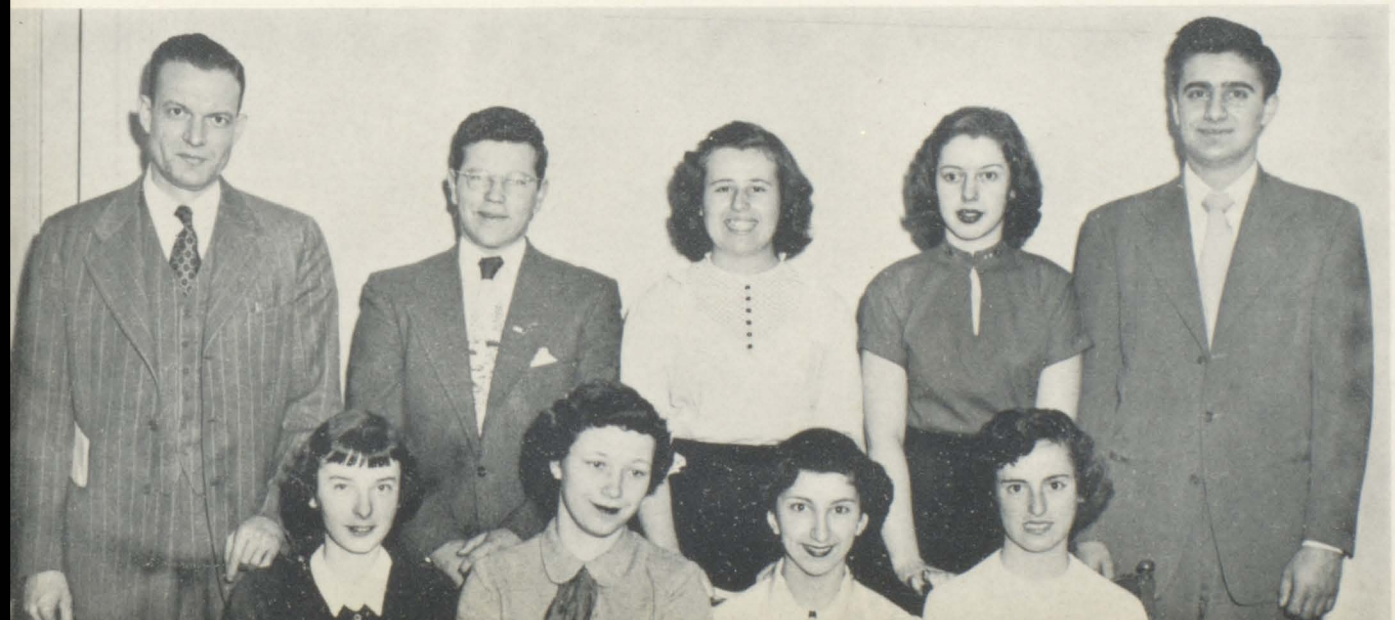

The Future Teachers of America is a group of students becoming better acquainted with teaching, its requirements, and problems. The members discuss teacher conduct, school citizenship, and salaries and learn of many opportunities in teaching. They acquire valuable information from speakers and visits to elementary schools.

Second row: Mr. Yandow (adviser), R. Lafreniere, M. Gould, S. Philip, C. Acker. First row: B. Goodroe, N.

Speech

The Speech and Dramatics Club studies voice principles, and the members learn to apply those principles to various forms of speaking. They take part in discussions, debates, and dramatics. This year the club was led by Nancy Thow, Richard Lafreniere, Ann Modano, and Barbara Goodroe.

Snappy Shots

ATHLETICS

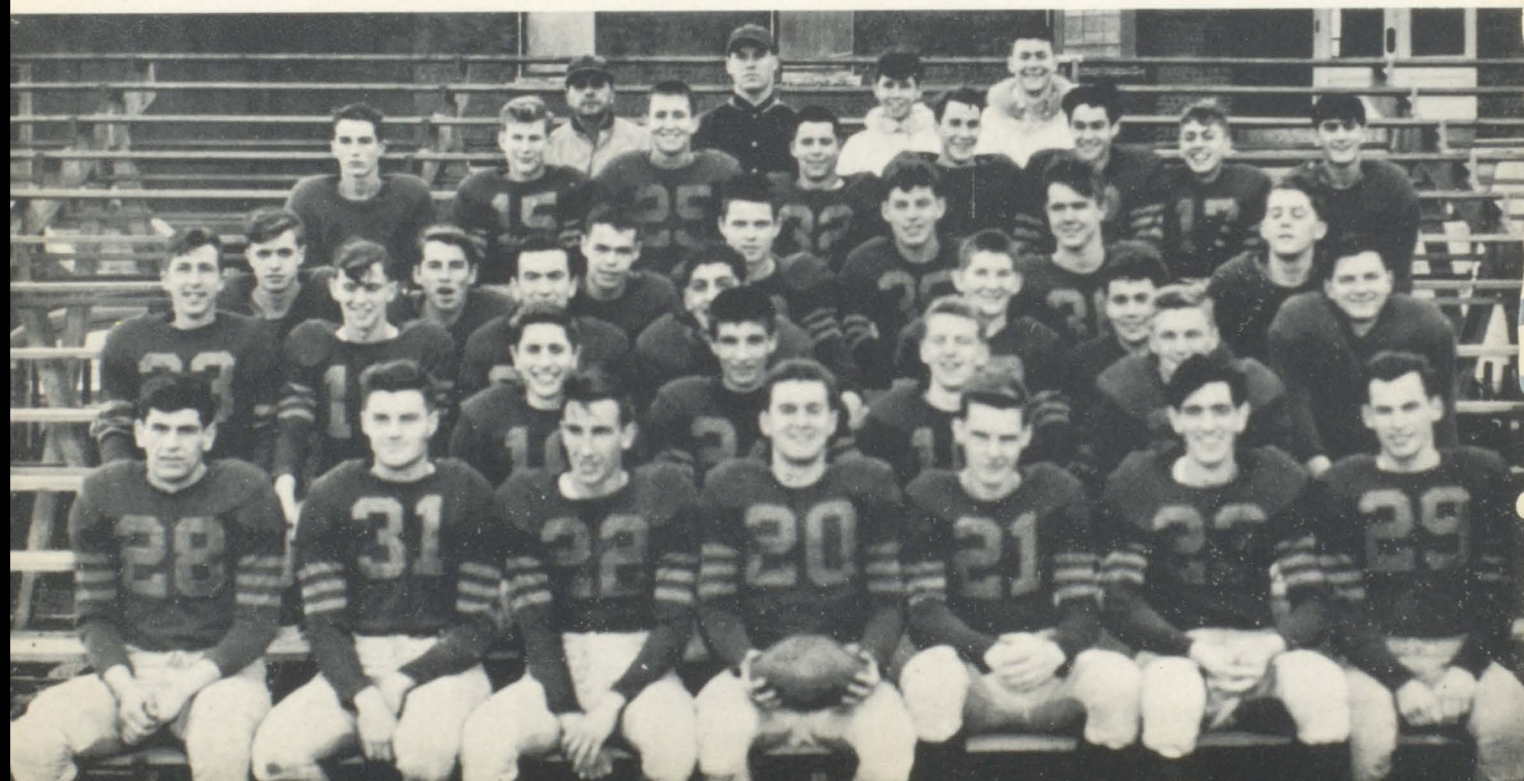

Sparked by a light fast backfield containing four seniors, the 1950 Crimson gridsters galloped to a five-to-one record. Spearheading the strong running attack was all-state halfback Al McLam and four year letterman fullback Larry Gregoire. Gary Corey ably quarterbacked the team and halfback Jimmy Collins turned in several creditable performances. John Shannon, Louie Gehlbach, and Joe Cerasoli were standouts in the line while Lyn Taplin was a capable reserve. Fred Ziter had the misfortune of breaking his ankle after the first game.

"O.K., you monkeys, let's do it this way!" With this familiar order from Coach Deep Corey, we fall in and drill, drill, drill! Deep's energy in coaching shows to good advantage as he consistently turns out winners.

Currier, F. Ziter, F. Tash, L. Taplin, R. Cecchini; R. Anzalone. Second row: G. Corey, D. Deep, J. Collins, A. McLam. First row: C. Sassi, L. Gregoire, J. Shannon, W. Trueba, M. Rouleau.

Al McLam picks up ten yards, as he sweeps wide around his own left end. Spaulding went on to beat Bennington, 33-13.

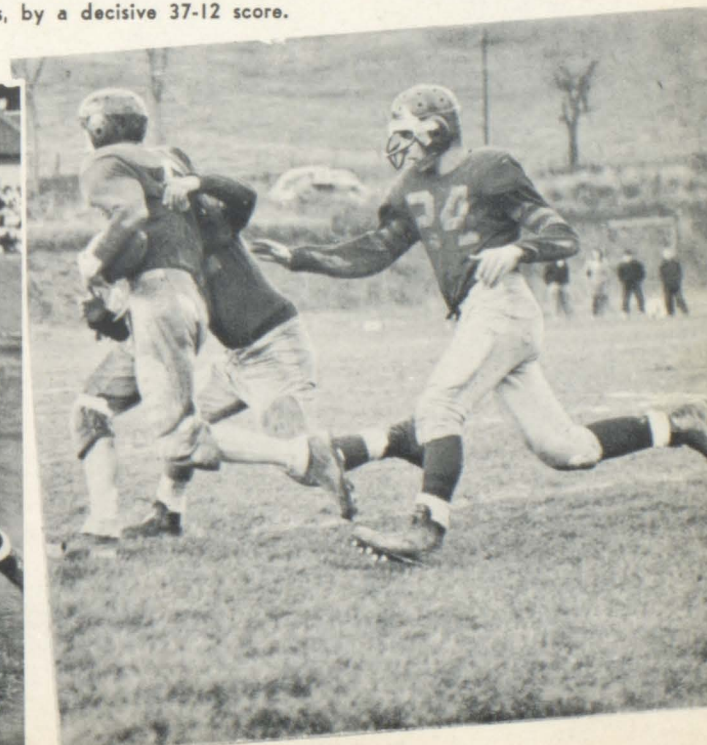

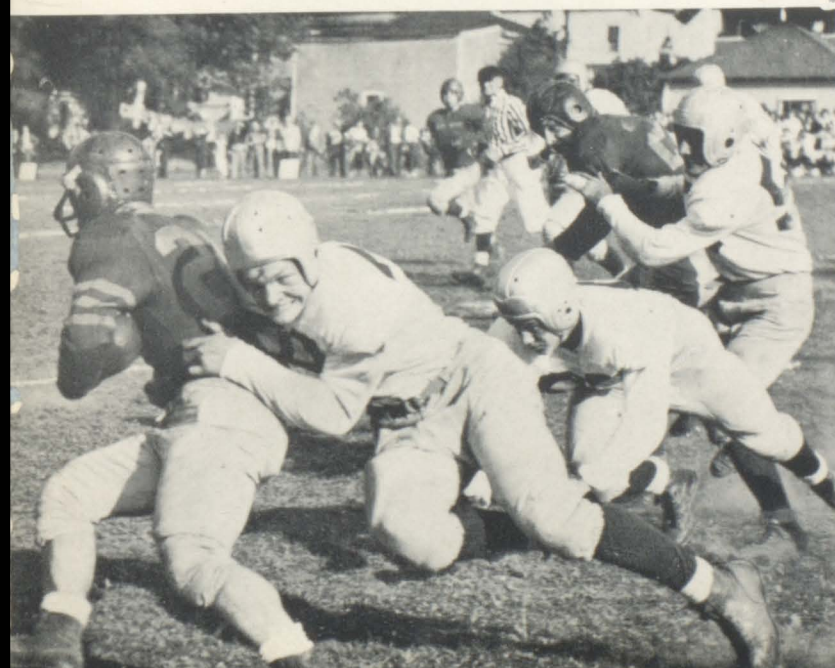

Bashaw, Trueba, and L. Gregoire close in for the tackle. Burlington's heavy line seemed to be the deciding factor of the game, as they marched to a 14-7 victory over the Tide.

Carrying three seniors on the starting five and two more on the bench, Bill Martin's Crimson Tide shook off a disastrous mid-season slump and once more roared through to the Northern Vermont title.

The Tide started the season fast, winning four in a row. Then came five straight reverses, three straight wins, four losses in seven games, and finally, the season-ending victory streak.

NORTHERN SECTIONAL PLAYOFF

March

2 Spaulding 30	Burlington 27
3 Spaulding 40	Cathedral 36

Captain, Center, Forward, Guard!

Four losses (B.F.A., Winooski, Burlington, and Cathedral) were suffered in league play. Revenge was gained against Burlington and Cathedral in the Northern Tourney.

Harris Yett, Bill Mann, and Marcey Rouleau all finished the season hovering around the 200 point mark while Bob Camire and Al McLam were not far behind. Rouleau led the scoring for the entire season; Yett, the leader in twelve Northern League games; and Camire was Northern Tourney high-scorer.

Yett was named on the Burlington Free Press All-Northern League team while Mann made the Burlington Daily News All-League team. Camire and Mann both placed on the All-Northern Tourney team.

Al McLam lays up a step-shot to help defeat Solons.

Standing: J. Collins, G. Corey, R. Shuttle, A. McLam, B. Rouleau, A. Solomon, R. Camire, J. Wark, D. Deep, B. Camire, W. Mann, H. Yett, W. Trueba. First row:

Deep I., Corey, Asst. coach; L. Gregoire, Mgr.; William H. Martin, Coach.

The Crimson basketeers had an interesting but, unfortunately, disastrous Christmas vacation trip.

Leaving on the morning of December 27, the three cars carrying fourteen players, two managers, and two coaches arrived in Schenectady, N.Y., in mid-afternoon. The same night the Tide met Mount Pleasant High School in the G.E. city. Mount Pleasant, for a number of years has been rated as one of the best high school teams in the East. They lived up to their billing against the Tide and pounded out a 78-33 win.

The next afternoon the team went through the General Electric plant in Schenectady. The same night a slow start caused a 53-47 loss to St. Mary's high of Amsterdam.

On the following day, Friday, the team appeared as guests on a television show on Station WRGB.

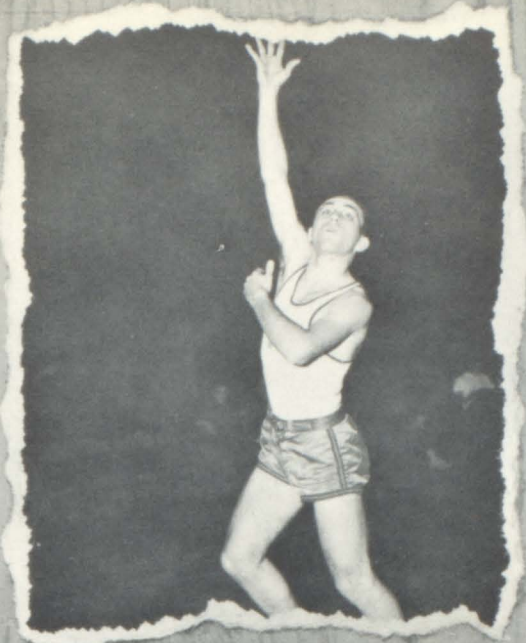

Saturday noon the team left for Bennington. Perhaps a little weary from the trip the Crimson dropped one to the Benhi Cats 52-49.

The three car pilgrimage returned to Barre Sunday afternoon just in time to welcome in the New Year.

O. Meredith Parry, President of Vermont Headmasters, presents coveted Northern Tourney trophy to Co-captain Bob Camire.

Harris Yett and Bob Camire go for rebound in Montpelier game.

HARRIS YETT

Harris is a good rebounder and a great shot. An excellent guard, he was always assigned to the opponent's high scorer. The 6'2" pivotman was one of the team's steadiest players.

BOB CAMIRE

Bob's forte is rebounding. An excellent passer, he also possesses a good assortment of shots under the basket. (In their junior and senior year, Camire and Yett gave Spaulding the best pair of pivotmen in the state.)

GARY COREY

Gary is a good ball-handler and passer. One of the most spirited members of the team, he put his drive and fight to its best use.

AL MCLAM

Al is an excellent dribbler and ball-handler. Besides being a fine shot, Al is also a good "clutch" player.

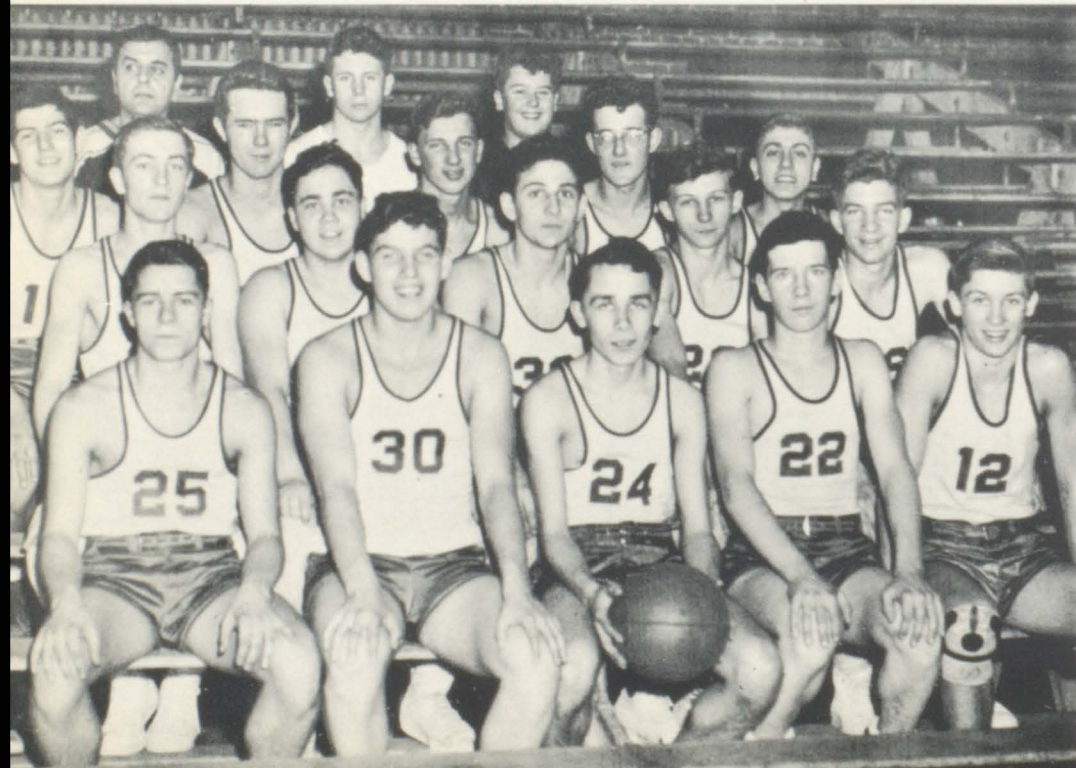

JIM COLLINS

Although handicapped by his lack of height, Jim became a good ball-player through his set-shooting ability. Along with Yett, Camire, and Corey, Jim spent three years on the varsity squad.

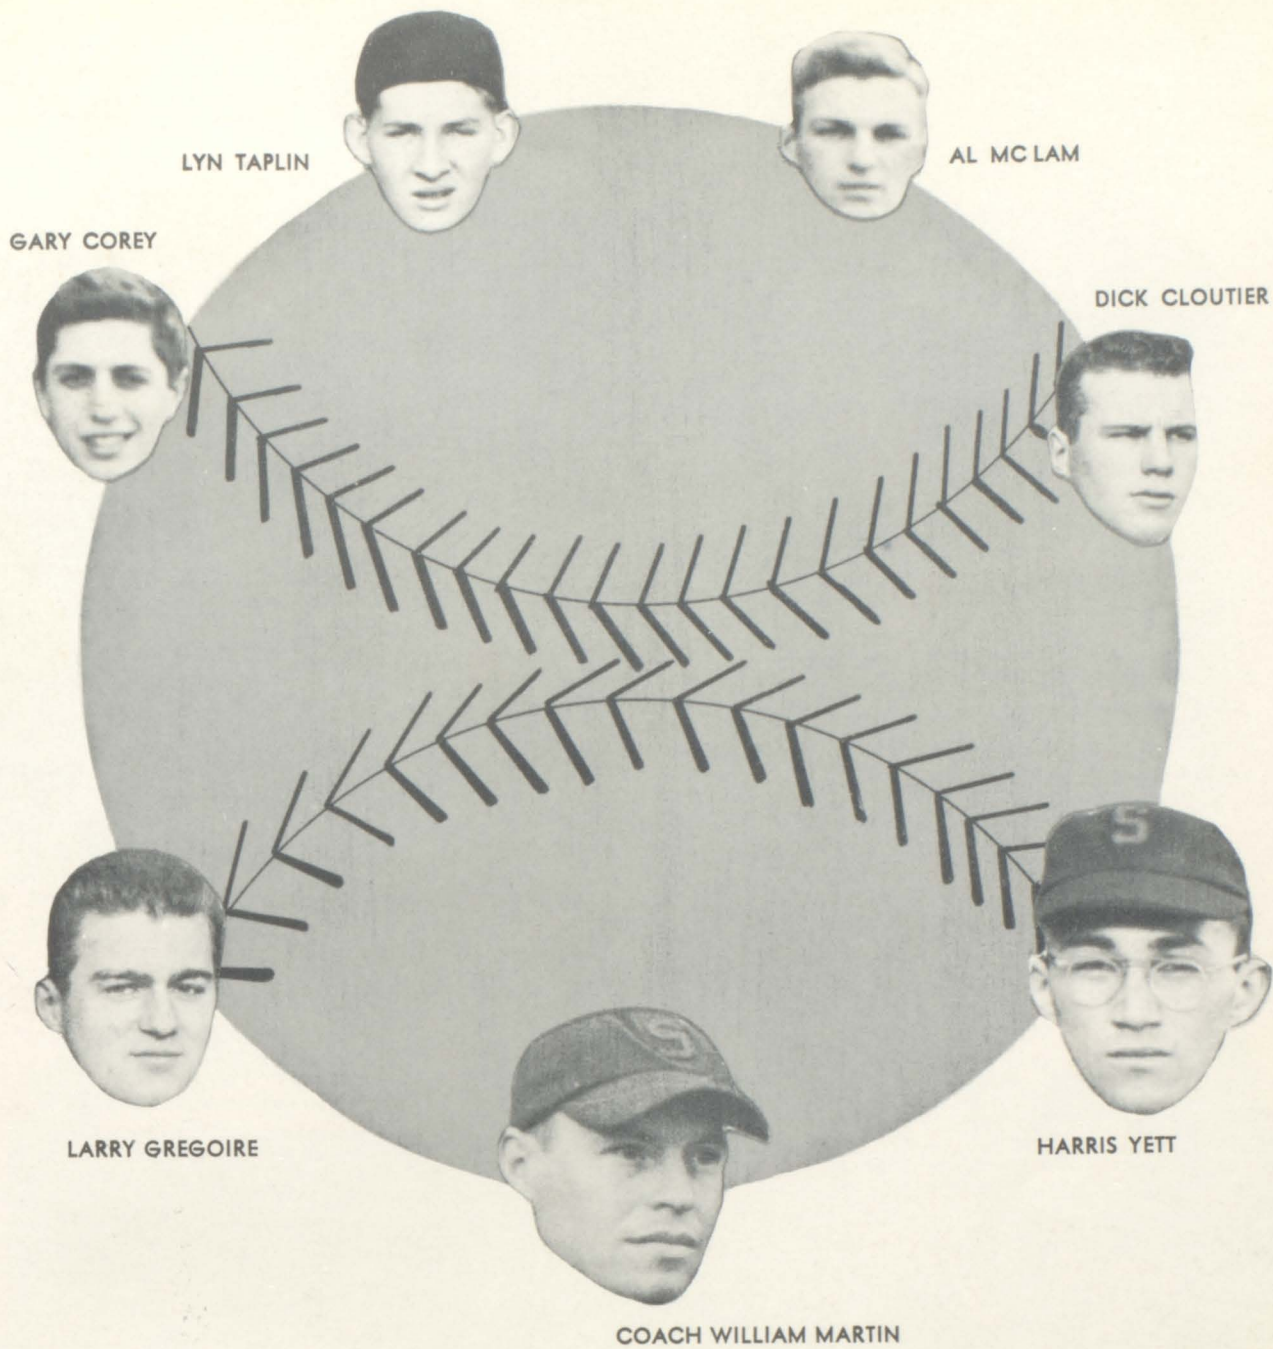

Ripple Makes A Splash

Deep Corey's Crimson Ripple—The S.H.S. J.V.'s—won the championship of the unofficial J.V. Northern League with an 11-1 record, the one loss coming at the hands of the runner-up Burlington J.V.'s. The fast, poised group of freshmen and sophomores had a starting team consisting of Bob Blow, Bob Brault, Charlie Jenkins, Pete Fisher, and Mike Ferguson.

Fourth row: Coach Deep Corey, D. Sargent, Mgr., E. Chadderdon. Third row: R. Brassard, W. Mugford, R. Blow, C. Jenkins, G. Corey. Second row: R. Ford, R. Cecchini, P. Fisher, J. MacAulay, D. Murray. First row: B. Brault, W. Bashaw, M. Ferguson, R. Aldrich, C. Thygesen.

With members of the class of '51 sprinkled liberally throughout the lineup, the 1950 Crimson nine swept to a 12-2 record in regular season play. The Tide lost a post-season state play-off tilt to Stowe, 4-2.

Members of the 1950 team included the sharp-hitting outfielder of Larry Gregoire, Gary Corey, and Dick Cloutier. Al McLam, the team's most reliable hitter, held sway at second base. Fastballing Haris Yett and stocky Lyn Taplin were key parts of the battery staff.

The majorettes, led by their captain Annette Bigras, made many snappy appearances this year. Their high stepping feet and precision twirling are the result of hard work and never ending practice. Every Friday found them in the school gym drilling under the watchful eye of Mr. Mori.

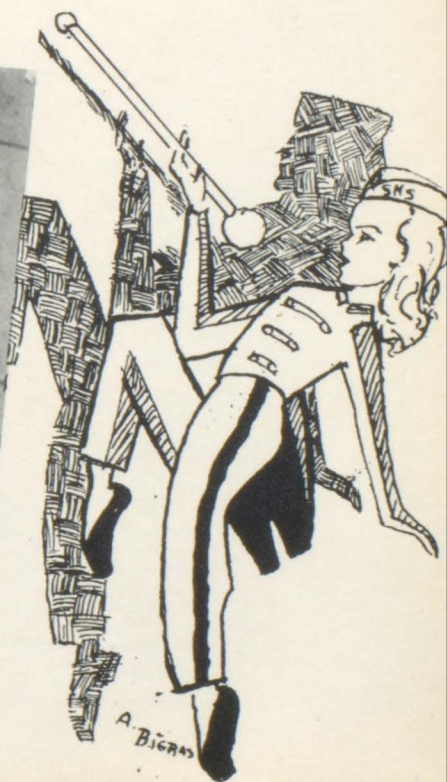

At each home football game the majorettes led the band from Spaulding to the auditorium and then they performed during the half. They also performed at every home basketball game. After the majorettes did their routine, their mascot, Sheila Brigham put on a solo that was really something to see.

Every year the girls go to Burlington to lead the band at the Music Festival. They all agree that this trip is the most fun of the year. This year the majorettes are losing three seniors, Joyce Scrizzi, Annette Bigras, and Mary Jean Sassone. Those girls will certainly miss the fun they have had being Spaulding Majorettes.

Girls' sports have expanded more than ever this year under the supervision of Miss Peggy Jones. The Girls' Athletic Association have elected for their officers this year: Toni Bussiere, Pres.; Judith Pasetto, Vice-Pres; and Rene Alzaga, Sec-Treas. These officers have been doing a great job.

In the fall, the girls play volley-ball, soccer, and go on hiking trips. Winter finds the girls enthusiastic about basketball, modern dance, skiing, Rifle Club, and skating. In spring you can hear someone yell, "Throw it home," and you know softball has come. In all they agree girls' sports have really grown at Spaulding.

The "Lighthouse," the beacon to the youth of Barre, is located on Church Street directly across from the City Park.

LIGHTHOUSE

At last, after many years of futile wishing and hoping, the teen-agers of Barre have a center where for three nights a week, they can go to lounge around, meet their friends, and in general enjoy themselves.

Last spring a group of ambitious students, with the help and advice of some adults and Barre Merchants obtained the old Chamber of Commerce building, to be used as a center. They began the task of cleaning it up and making it suitable for use. After much discussion as to what it should be named, it was decided that it would be called The Lighthouse. On Friday night, April 21, the Lighthouse began its' career by having open house and serving free refreshments to all Barre teen-agers.

Barre's Beacon

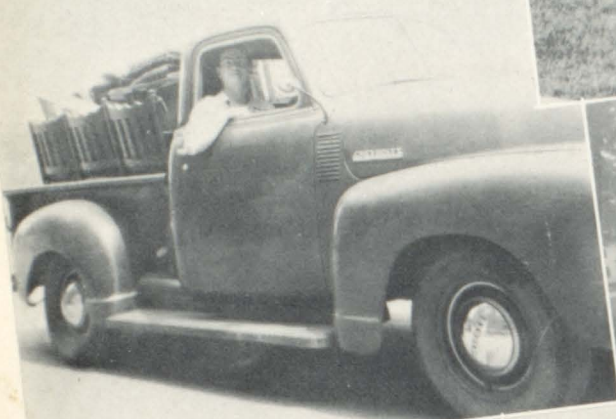

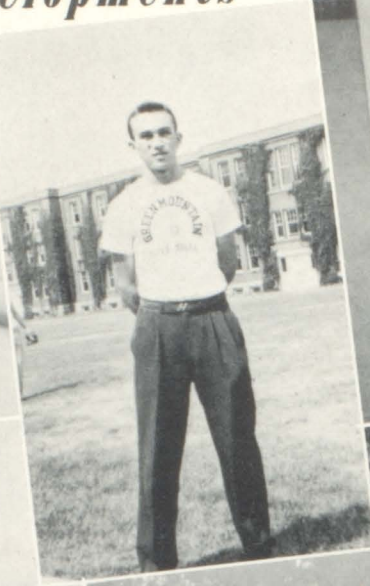

Before the opening last spring, such scenes as this were common. After a few days of scrubbing, the walls, woodwork and floor looked like new.

It is downstairs, where the snack bar and ping-pong tables are located, that the members find refreshment and entertainment.

Interesting Developments

Rena Gusmai at the left was chosen our valedictorian with a splendid average for four years. Following close behind her was Anne Seaver at the right who was chosen salutatorian with another very high average.
