You may be wondering why there's a picture of a comet on the cover of this yearbook. Well, stop wondering. Halley's Comet appears in sight of the earth once every eighty-seven years or so, and in November of 1985, the comet made its return visit.

The comet, thought to be as old as the universe itself, is in a long, elliptical orbit around our sun, and its passes across the earth's atmosphere are regular, but few and far between. Its orbit was first discovered by English astronomer Edmund Halley in the 1700's, hence its name.

The comet will depart this spring, not long before graduation. This is the reason why it has been chosen as the theme for the 1986 Our Echo; the Class of '86 will be going out with the comet.

It's very appropriate that the cheerleaders chose to do their routine to "Rock Around the Clock" this year, because it was with that song that Bill Haley and the Comets officially launched the Rock and Roll era. It is to this song that we owe thanks for bringing us the music we listen to today, the music that effects the life of every student.

The point is, the lives we live at Spaulding are a lot more than just academics and sports. There are many clubs and organizations to join, dances and parties to attend, and after school jobs to earn an extra dollar or two. It is these activities that really have the biggest effect on the life of the Spaulding student.

Spirit Week — Tide Pride flows on.

There was something extra special about the week that preceded Homecoming Weekend this year. That something special was the true display of spirit by all classes at Spaulding. Spirit Week showed Spaulding High School students at their best. The week brought the freshmen, sophomore, junior and senior classes together as a unified school full of spirit and Tide Pride.

Spirit Week had special daily events designed to get students involved with their class as well as their school. The spirit boosting events were: Sweat Day, Fifties Day, Hawaiian Day, Hat, Tie and Pin Day and finally the ever-popular Red and Blue Day. In addition to the daily events, the Spirit Week contest, a competition between classes; was divided into two categories: hall decorating and students dressed in red and blue. The judging took place on Friday morning. The Seniors won the red and blue contest while the junior class won the hall decorating contest. At an enthusiastic pep rally that afternoon, the overall winner of the Spirit Week contest was announced. The most spirited class at Spaulding High School for 1985 was of course the mighty senior class.

The 1985 Spirit Week was a great success and will be remembered as a special time when all classes shared enthusiasm and pride in Spaulding High School.

Homecoming '85 was a big success. The festivities began with the traditional bonfire — snakedance on Friday night. Following the rowdy race down Main Street, a reception was held at school. Refreshments were available, thanks to the SHS Boosters, and A&B Music played until 10:00.

Saturday was filled with activities. The Field Hockey team played a great game, but, unfortunately, was defeated by Middlebury. The soccer team made up for that loss with a 3-0 victory over the tigers.

At noon the third annual Homecoming parade began. A variety of floats were entered by classes and clubs. The Booster Club made a float for our Homecoming Queen, Debbie Chatot, King, Chris Lorden, and their court. The winner of the float contest was the senior class.

The SHS-Middlebury football game was a tough one, but the Tide came out on top, 6-0. The team played a great game and pulled off a victory against the tigers that hadn't been seen in many years.

Saturday night everyone boogied to music by Don & Co. at the long awaited Homecoming dance.

Overall, the weekend was alive and filled with excitement, spirit and fun! It as a Homecoming to be remembered!

Juniors and Sophomores Rake in the 'Ol Dough

If you happened to see people walking around with odd looking fuzzy creatures on their shoulders this year, don't worry. It's not some strange disease, it's only the Juniors participating in their magazine sale by wearing weeples!

This year's sale was a complete success. The class of 1987 raised more than their goal, and even exceeded their stretch goal. In fact, this year we raised more than any previous class, setting a

Our sophomore year had begun, and the class of 1988 took the step with ease. We weren't "imature freshmen" anymore and the purchasing of our class rings proved it!

On October 16th and 17th Jostens' representatives could be found in the lobby of S.H.S.; waiting for us, the sophomores to place our orders, and that we did!

Crowds gathered around the display cases, trying to decide — "Which one?" "What size?" And record of $8000.

The sale was not only profitable to the class, but also to the people who did the selling. There were many prizes given out, including weeples, Jockey Hollow pizzas, spirit caps, milk (?) mugs, cash, and even a complete stereo system.

The success of this year's sale is just another example of the tremendous spirit of the class of 1987!

of course, "WHICH color should I get?" When these questions had been answered and forms were completed, the customers walked away happy with their selections.

The sale was a huge success and proved to be very profitable to our class. The majority of sophomores purchased rings making this year's sale one of the best!

The Tradition Lives On

“Breakdown!”

“Hit!”

“Breakdown!”

“Hit”

The sound of determination echoed across the field as the Juniors shuddered with indignation. The scene was set. The captains met with the coaches and referees to set the rules. But the blow of the first whistle decided there would be no rules.

A hearty Senior defense stepped up to the line of scrimmage. The Junior's offense's first play got them no gain, which foreshadowed the rest of the game. After four quick downs, the juniors gave the ball up to the seniors who set their running game to work. A short run by Marcia Dion, another first down by Liz Wells, left them with a first and goal situation. Then another powerful dash by Marcia Dion got the first 6 on the board. The rest is history — two long bombs to Jackie Nolan, and a shorter one to Deb Chatot lead the seniors to a 28-14 victory.

The juniors scored on a pass from quarterback Traci Braddee to Jeanie Lessard who flew into the end-zone. Lessard scored again in the second half on a hand-off play.

A crushing senior defense was led by Suzie Peloquin and Marie Dessereau who were the leading tacklers. Aggressive Celia Burke was also in on the key defensive plays. Linemen Sue Bernier and Deb Merrill kept the quarterback on her toes and on her rearend, quite a few times. Kris Kinley and Mia Calevro also thrashed on a few juniors.

The class of 1987 put up a good fight and showed some talent but once again the seniors came out on top. “Better luck next time Bebe's!”

Winter Carnival is the Highlight of the Season

Winter Carnival weekend was the highlight of the winter season.

It began on Valentines Day with a Hawaiian dance. Everyone got dressed up in their Hawaiian duds and boogied to music played by Don & Co.

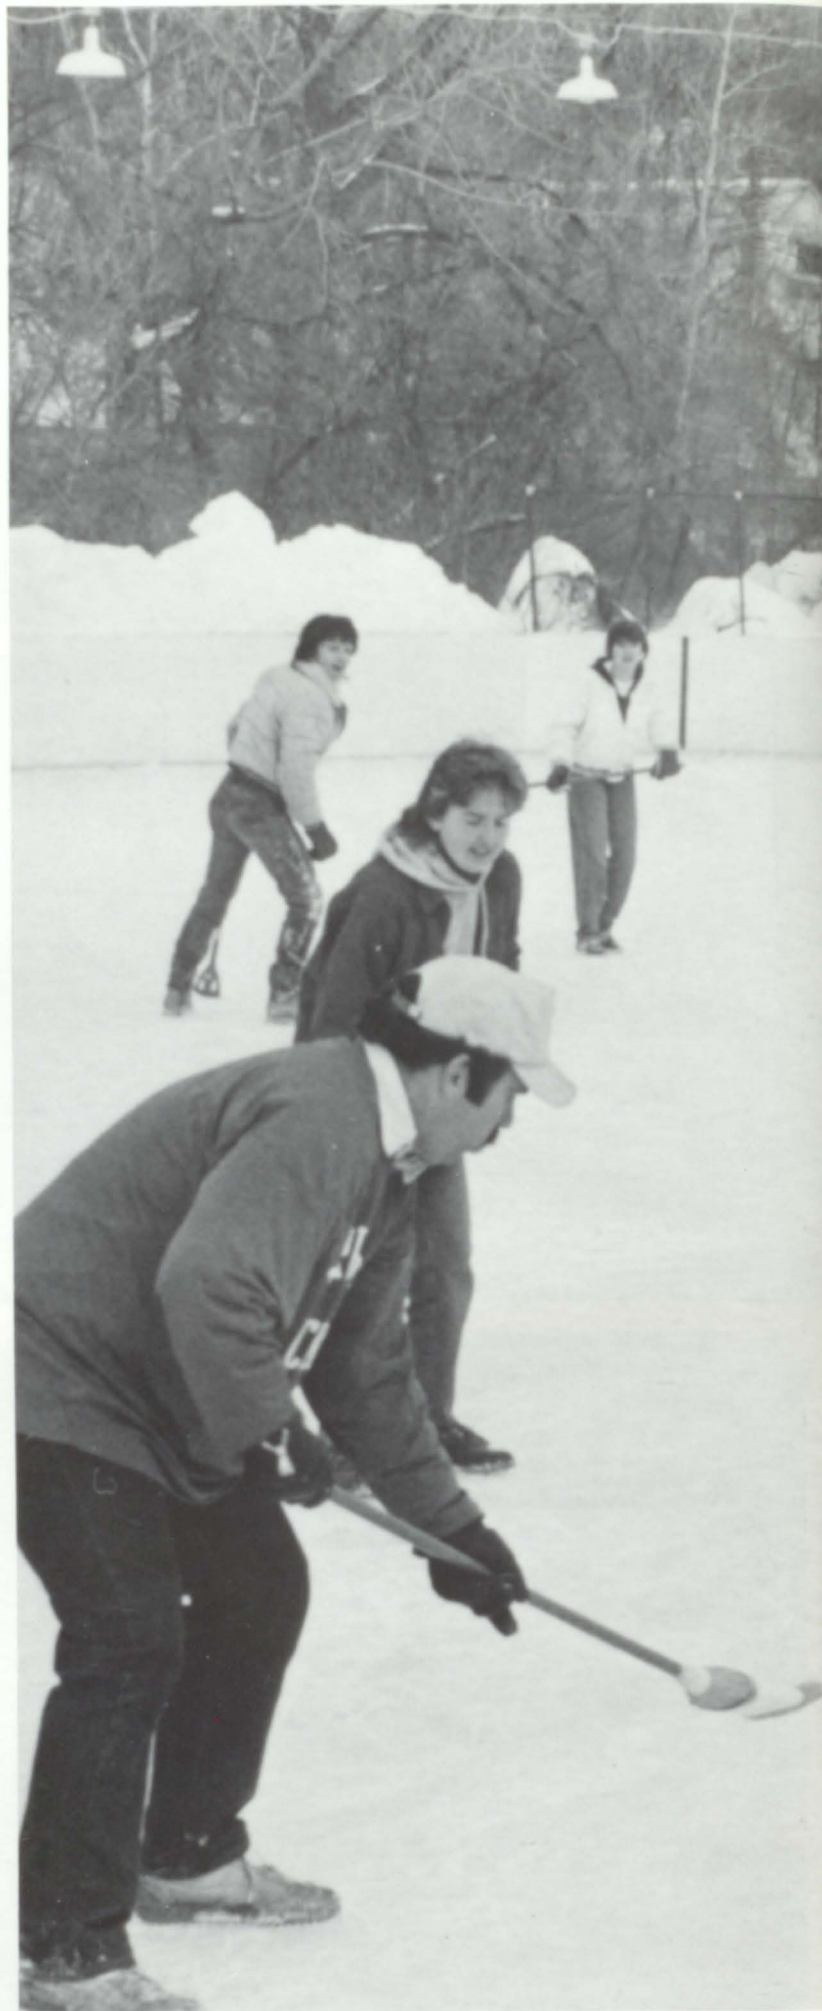

Saturday was busy with the State Cheerleading Competition and the hockey team's final game. Friends gathered on Strawberry Hill that night for a sliding party.

Sunday morning consisted of a pancake breakfast, sponsored by Close-up and the annual broom-ball tournament. The winner of the all day affair was a group of sophomores, known as the "Bud Bunch".

The weekend was certainly an enjoyable one and will be remembered for years to come!

Crystal Ball Sparkles

The Crystal Ball was held at the Barre Auditorium on January 18, 1986. The theme song was "Silent Night" by Bon-Jovi. Phil Abair and the Showstoppers played at this formal.

Student Council members decorated the Auditorium in white and gold. Helium balloons filled the dance floor air, holding up gold garland that was strung from the walls. Small white strings of lights were hung about, giving a "sparkling" effect.

There were 350 students who attended this Crystal ball of 1986. The night was filled with fun and laughter. And for the seniors — a memory of this last Ball was made. Memories like these stay with us forever.

Spaulding Fans have a Lot to Cheer About

Whether you are dying of frostbite at the BOR or sweating buckets in the auditorium, it won't matter a bit if you are a true Tide Fan. The requirements to become a Tide Fan are simple: hatred of anything with the name Solon associated with it, a voice that carries across a crowd and the ability to spell S-P-A-U-L-D-I-N-G correctly.

Even if you aren't involved in a sport you can still get the same feeling of being part of a team from showing up to cheer. Nothing is more group oriented than joining the good old "Give me an S!!."

There is no doubt the Tide Pride is an inborn trait of all Spaulding students. As Jay Bartlett puts it, "Showing your spirit for your school lets the other team know how you feel — Fan-tastic!!"

Part-time Jobs: Responsibilities and Pocket Money

As the senior year rolls around, it's time to really start thinking about a part-time job. College, the yearbook, senior pictures, class dues, and sometimes even car payments are just a few of the expenses that can seem to come up.

At first it's hard and sometimes scary to go into a store or business and ask for an application, but it gets easier.

Once a job has been found, a lot of things change. It's nice to have some in your pocket, but as always, there is always some bad with the good. There's no more "bumming around" after school, no more sports, in some cases, and also the problem of making up tests after school when work is at 2:30.

Senior year is a hectic one, no doubt, with its proms, SAT's, applying to colleges, getting better grades and, of course, GRADUATION. Part of being a senior is being responsible, which means having a job. Although it has its disadvantages, it's all worth it in the end.

Excel and Scholars Bowl Work to Expand Minds

Spaulding's Scholar's Bowl Team has had a very successful season. Competing in the game based on the College Bowl, is a heads up, fast moving challenge to see which team is the best at fast recall. It consists of many science, sports, current events and other varied questions.

Under the direction of Mr. Casey the team meets on Thursdays to practice and work on Vermont Excel is a special program held at Vermont College geared for able students. The primary intention of Excel is to bridge the distance between high school and college.

Excel is divided into two semesters, the first consisting of a theme of controversial issues. A consortium of speakers for each topic presented their views. Among the various topics presented were: the Breakdown of the American Family, apartheid and Divestment, the Central American Crisis, Woman's Rights and Nuclear proliferation and Peace.

The second semester will consist of mini courses. Those offered are: Speed reading, the Russian's World, Power and Ethics, Poetry and Psychology. Each course is taught in a college type atmosphere.

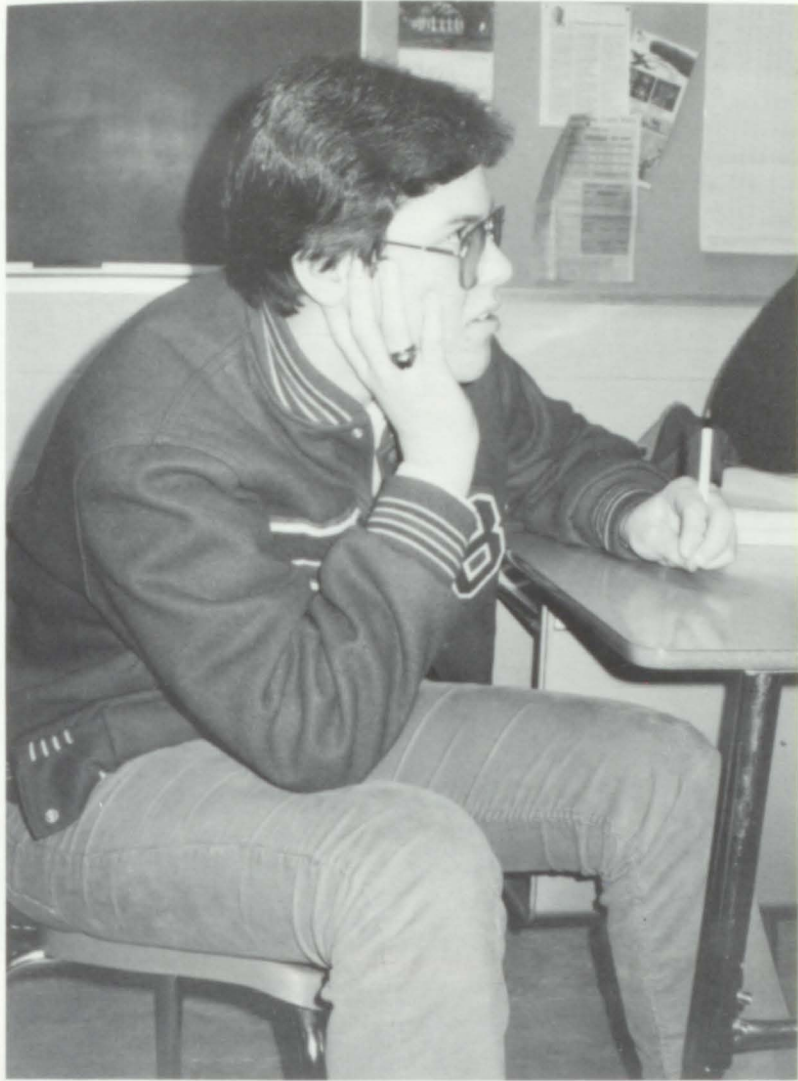

Excel is enjoyable as well as rewarding. It allows the student academic freedom and the chance to take new courses. It is an important extension of academics outside of the classroom.

Student Council Puts On Successful Blood Drawing

The Student Council took a new approach this year. Instead of just concentration on the social activities of the students, we became more concerned with governmental issues that faced the student body throughout the year. The change from social to government issues was a definite step in the right direction.

The four student council officers worked hard to change the image of the council. A poll was conducted to survey students on what they thought were the most pressing problems in the 1985-86 school year. Many students were concerned with the smoking issue, the problem of the closed bathrooms and other school related problems. The student council held trials in order to hear the students' thoughts and ideas. This introduction of student government has paved the way for students in the future.

Homecoming, The Crystal Ball and the new government were all great successes of the student council this year.

— Beth Taylor

On October 4, in the Spaulding gym, the vampires struck again, with the help of the Red Cross and the Student Council. Their inviting needles drew 84 victims to the Annual Blood Drawing, 9 more than the assigned goal of 75.

This year's turnout was not as successful as last year's turnout of 107 donors. Some feel this is because it was held in October rather than February, having fewer students able to meet the 17 years of age requirement.

The vampires left the gym full and are giving faculty and students a year to recuperate until their fangs strike again.

SADD Reinforces the Lessons of Driver's Ed

"Get your eyes up and use two hands!" Ms. Broderick is on the road again. Any student that has ever taken Driver Education has heard that comment at least once. For those of us that have taken or are taking the class, there is the amazement at how much patience the driving teachers have and how brave they are. How many of us would put our life in the hands of a fifteen year old maniac that doesn't know the brake pedal from the gas? The driving

To pass driver's education, the student must have spent thirty hours in class and six hours actually driving. Flag Team & Chorus Go On The Road

Under the direction of Mr. Roger Grow, the chorale and chorus have learned many new singing techniques this year. Mr. Grow replaced Mr. Zorn for a year, while Mr. Zorn and his wife took pleasure in raising their first born.

The chorale consists of 16 singers: Seven sopranos, five altos, one tenor and three basses. The music they sang varies between religious pop and contemporary jazz. Members of the chorale participated in the Winooski Valley Music Festival and tryouts for the All-State Music Festival.

The chorus consists of roughly 60 singers, and the girls definitely have the majority. More tenors and basses are needed to help make the chorus even better than it already is. The

The flag team made the 1985-86 school year a good one, with many hours of hard work; at practice, fundraising and performances.

This year started off as it always does, with our usual half-time shows on the football field. We thought we had done better than our previous years. We went on to do parades, exhibitions and lots of fundraisers.

The highlight this year for us was the trip to Atlanta for the Martin Luther King Day Parade.

songs that the chorus sings are basically focused on songs that are more upbeat and well known; however, the chorus also experiences singing religious songs and music written in a different language.

The chorus and chorale had a chance to put everything they'd learned together in our Winter concert, which went over quite well. The singers enjoyed singing the music, and the audience enjoyed hearing it.

In March, the chorale and chorus took part in an exchange concert with the Plainfield High School of Plainfield, Connecticut. The trip was a success, and for that matter, so was the entire year for the Spaulding chorale and chorus.

— Liane Pease

The tension, excitement and nervousness sometimes got to us but we finally got it together. We worked hard to make Spaulding and Vermont proud of us.

One thing that worked well for us this year was our new way to run things, having no captain. This way nobody ruled over us, and we all felt equal.

With our 7-member team and all we accomplished this year, we look forward to the 1986-1987 school year.

Being In The Band Is Something Special

Being in the band is something special. Once you get into band you get swept away with all the football games, concerts and trips you participate in. Being with people who enjoy performing and care about the quality of the band is a great experience.

The band is a family; when you travel to away football games and on big trips, like to Georgia, you begin to grow closer to one another, then band isn't just a class, it's a special part of your life that makes you feel good about yourself.

In band you have responsibilities as you would in another class. Some of these responsibilities are memorizing music, scales and marching techniques for shows. It looks much better if a marching band can play its music from memory.

This year has been a year for hard work, and of much recognition for the band. We feel honored to have had such an opportunity to represent SHS.

The Band Embarks on One Crazy Trip

The four long months of counting had finally dwindled down and the 24 hour count down was about to begin.

We couldn't believe it, we'd worked so hard for so long and our dream was finally going to be a reality. Yes, it's true, we are going to Atlanta. The SHS band IS going to Atlanta, Georgia!!

We all arrived at school on Friday, Jan. 17th at 7:00 p.m. Even though the fundraising work was over, we still had alot of hard work ahead of us. We loaded our instruments and uniforms on an AMS van and preloaded the buses with our luggage and possessions.

Our night in school was definately different, but not at all boring. We played a little hoop, watched some scary movies and may of managed to even sneak in a little sleep!

But by the time 2:30 A.M. on Saturday morning came, we were all wide awake and eager to go with our Walkman's blasting and our carry ons packed.

We loaded onto the bus and soon arrived in Boston. Within 30 minutes we were all seat belted in our plane and ready to go. Approximately 3 hours later we landed in Georgia and headed for our hotel.

All of our accommodations at our hotel, The Days Inn, seemed very adequate and appealed to all of us. We found our rooms, unpacked our bags and finally after traveling all day, managed to sit back and just relax! It wasn't difficult falling asleep that night.

Sunday morning came bright and early as we slowly managed to struggle out of our beds with the incentive of satisfying our grumbling stomachs. But breakfast was definately not what had planned for.

There was dry biscuits, sloppy grits, uncooked scrambled eggs and overcooked bacon. Breakfast was short and quick as we continued to make plans. We started off with a three hour bus tour around Georgia — both city sites and residential and also stopped at the cyclorama. We ended the day with some quick shopping and swimming in the pool. But before going to bed we managed to meet the West Virginia band that would now be sharing the hotel with us.

Jan. 20 — The big day was finally here, and what a busy day it was going to be! After trying to eat breakfast we all dressed and reported for our morning practice of our routines in the parking lot.

We arrived at the parade route right on time. But because of the disorganization of the parade it was two hours late. But suddenly the crowded streets opened up and we started to show Georgia just what we were made of and what Vermont could do. What we thought was going to be a long and tiring four miles turned out to be very enjoyable and moving. We were like a single white dot on black paper, but that didn't bother any of us. We were the only complete white band there and were proud of it! The encouragement from the onlookers and other bands made it so easy to feel like a part of the dream. For here in the middle of Georgia was the result of Martin Luther's dream. There was children both white and black walking down the same street, marching as of a gesture of peace and goodwill."

Spaulding Publications Thrive in 1986

Kaliedoscope published its 1985-86 edition of The Kaliedoscope Magazine of Fine Arts. Kaliedoscope started the year off with a campaign to encourage students to enter their most prominent works.

The judges spent several weeks debating what to publish out of the excellent works Kaliedoscope received. Also at this time, Kaliedoscope held a Valentine raffle, to raise money for the clubs' first sweatshirts. Another year passes, by at good ol' Spaulding High, and what a year it was, especially for news. As usual, the Sentinel was there to cover it.

With editors Doug Cumming, Brian Cole, Lisa Nativi, Rich Weeks, and Advisor Mr. Comey, this news staff was more than qualified to bring all of the news to the student body in the most professional and mature journalistic manner attainable.

This year's feature stories, written by loyal student reporters as well as members of the journalism class, ranged from popular news and sports coverage to in-depth interviews of Spaulding's most interesting inhabitants.

Due to new student quartering and "room-swapping" the publications room (208A, where once dwelled the honorable, award-winning Sentinel) has been transformed into a working classroom, leaving only the small office room for the use of the entire staff. However, with innovative redecorating (Like posters of Blackie Lawless, inflated surgical gloves called "Herbies," and a wall of stacked empty cans) the editorial staff has succeeded in enlightening this dismal area.

As the year of 1986 goes by, the senior editors ponder upon the question of who will be their successors. Who will be left to perform the important scientific experiments and keep the "Sentinel hand" waving? Who will be left with the honor, privilege and demand for great personal sacrifice that makes an editor? This question, posed before the staff, still remains unanswered. We, the senior editors, can only wish him or her the best of luck in fulfilling the troublesome task of keeping the Sentinel alive and well.

Varsity "S" and Special Olympics Boosters Put Together Memorable Events

Once again, the Varsity "S" club put together some of the most exciting and memorable events of the year.

We started off with a great homecoming float and organized the bonfire and snakedance on Friday night.

Christmas brought the Varsity "S" tree sale to town and with the new year came the purchase of a popcorn machine to be used for fundraising activities.

Winter Carnival came in February. The club sponsored a Hawaiian dance, a breakfast, and the annual broomball tournament.

Something new to all athletes were complimentary tickets to all SHS home games, courtesy of Varsity "S".

Spring things included, FUN NIGHT, scholarships, and mugs for graduating Seniors.

Varsity "S" club had a great year. Everyone continued to show their spirit, enthusiasm, and true sportsmanship throughout the seasons and had a lot of fun doing it too!

— Suzie Peloquin

Working with the Special Olympics Booster Club is a truly meaningful experience. All the hard work is worth it when you think about the effects it has upon such deserving children.

The club has had a full and exciting year raising money to support the athletes. With the concession at all girl's home basketball games and activities like balloon-O-grams, pom pom sales and lollipop sales, we have raised a lot of money. After buying a new popcorn machine, we still have plenty to do things like sponsoring kids at summer camp.

It isn't often that a club of teenagers has such a direct effect upon a group of kids. It is because of this that being a part of the Special Olympics Booster Club is so special.

“Life is Happening Here”

Simon and Garfunkel's “Bridge Over Troubled Water” mingled with the song of the audience; the hum of anxious conversation and shifting bodies in chairs, waiting for the show to begin. But the only sound that reached those standing behind the curtains, in the darkness, was the sound of their own hearts racing and their own minds forming the character that they must now become. It was time.

The music faded, and the voices along with it, as the lights dimmed to blackness.

On the edge of their entrance the actors stood. Whispers of “Break-a-leg” fluttered in the air and a smile and a hug were support enough. All the hard work, all the late night rehearsals, laughter and friendship, all the directors' understanding, professional advice, all of these were for one moment. One moment in which a story was told; a story of a young teacher and her students. It was a story of frustration, oppression, rage and insecurity. But it was also a story of knowledge, compassion, self-worth and love. It was a story that both actors and spectators could identify with, and one which made them say, “I've felt that way before.”

Up the Down Staircase was a story of teaching and learning and the fact that in a classroom, it can work both ways.

To answer the question — what was happening in the fall production of Up the Down Staircase? We answer, “Life was happening here.”

French and Spanish Clubs Succeed Due to Cooperation

What French Club? That may be the question on the minds of those who remember us from last year. Freshmen however, probably don't know that there is a french club at Spaulding.

Last May, Mrs. Thibault, the French Club advisor, announced to the members that she would not be returning in the fall, but that there would be an advisor for us when we came back.

When we returned in August, Mr. Desrochers was introduced as the new french teacher and french club advisor. After a few weeks of school, Mr. Desrochers quit, so we were left without an advisor. Mrs. Ochmanski replaced Mr. Desrochers as a french teacher, but because of her inexperience as a club advisor, decided not to be the advisor for the French Club.

Miss Ciotti, the Language

This year's Spanish Club has been a success due to the cooperative effort of it's members.

The club started off the year in October with a welcoming party for a special visitor from Nicaragua. Fernando Jouguin Vallee. At the party Fernando was made an honorary member of the club and was a recipient of various gifts as well as a certificate of membership designed by the members.

Next, in November the club provided refreshments at a Barre Town square dance jubilee. Despite bad weather and a low attendance we profited and had an enjoyable evening.

December was marked by two successful holiday raffles. The first of which was won by Holly Renner was a Christmas stocking stuffed with goodies and the Department Head, and the officers finally decided that only the members who went to Quebec last year would go to Montreal this year. But, now we had to find an advisor. After many complications, and numerous phone calls to Mrs. Russell, she agreed to be our chaperone to Montreal.

The French Club is finally back in action. Twelve of us leave for Montreal on May 15 and return the 16th.

The officers, Amy Abare, Carmen Maurice, and Lisa Ducharme, would like to thank Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Ochmanski, Miss Ciotte, and all the administration for their understanding and support throughout this complicating year for the French Club.

— Lisa Ducharme

second was won by Mrs. Roth (Kevin) which was a Christmas ham.

During the months of January through March the club was kept busy with the International Supper and other various activities.

Finally the day came when our efforts paid off. Early one May morning the club ventured off to Manchester, N.H. to be entertained by the National Theater of Performing Arts production of Calderon's comedy "Mananas de Abril y Mayo" (Mornings of April and May). Then from Manchester to Boston's Faniel Hall and Quincy Market for the remainder of the day.

The year was topped off with a picnic at Montpelier's Hubbard Park.

Key Club Blasted off to "Great Year", Interact Celebrates 20th Anniversary

This year was Interact's 20th anniversary, being founded in 1966 by Norm Akley. We are proud of this continuous interest in the club and feel we made many accomplishments during this special year.

We are still sponsoring a girl from India (R. Shanti) through the Christian Children's Fund, who turned 18 in November. We have communicated with her and are about to find out her first name.

Some community projects we did include walking the CROP Walk, painting on B.A.M.P.E.E.

With officers Jeff Mugford, Mike Nativi, Jeff Williams and Jim Mulligan, the 1985-1986 Key Club blasted, off to a great year. The "great year" began with the best float Spaulding High School has ever seen in our homecoming parade. Unfortunately, it was denied first place and working at the Barre Jaycee's Haunted House.

Of course we cannot forget the many fundraisers we had to make money for our club trip at the end of the year.

Our club communicated with 60 other clubs in the U.S. by writing letters to other Interactors. We received many responses which were, indeed, quite interesting to read.

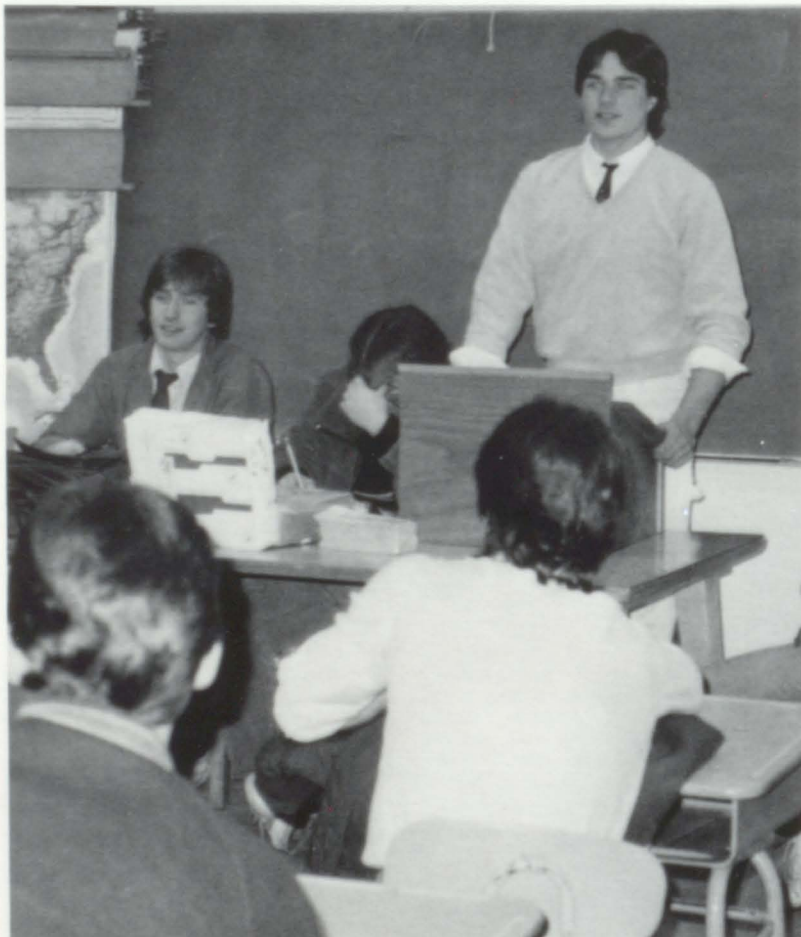

We hope that next year's club is as successful and fulfilled as this year's.

Vocational Clubs Practice for the Real World

Pre-Engineering Graphics VICA (Vocational Industrial Club of America) is a great club to be in. While we're having fun, we're also learning new skills that will prepare us for the "Wide World of Work."

The club is made up of several committees, in which the students make decisions concerning the club. Our club advisor is Mr. Nadeau. He's a great advisor because he lets us make the decisions and helps us when we need help.

Speakers have come into our class to tell us about things such as how it is to be in college pursuing a technical career, or what it is like to be a licensed architect. We've also been helped with making our resumes, which will come in handy in the future.

The seniors were given a chance to work on a Cad-Apple computer. We learned a great deal from that.

DECA, or Distributive Education Club of America, consisted this year of 27 active members. We have taken part in a variety of State Meetings and in the annual state competition at the Holiday Inn in White River Jct. One of our major activities was a trip to

The Spaulding High School FBLA Chapter has a total of twenty five members. The club is designed for students ranging from the ninth to twelfth grade who have taken at least one business course.

The club has busied themselves by selling candles; having food sales, and stuffed animals. They also organized a

Every year, several students from our club are sent to state skill Olympics. This is a chance for us to use the skills that we have learned. Last June, two students were sent to National Competition in Phoenix.

As every club does, we had a fundraiser. We had our annual Grandfather clock raffle. Only this year we added a new "twist." We gave the winner a choice of either the clock or a stereo system. The money we raised will be used to send students to competition.

The Pre-Engineering Graphics VICA club is a great one. It provides us with challenges, decisions and new skills we need to excel in our college and working career.

We urge students to take the Pre-Engineering Graphics and join this club. "You don't know what you're missing!"

Aides Should Be Awarded Varsity Letters

Office Aides should be awarded varsity letters in long distance walking. They cover the whole school delivering messages and hunting down elusive teachers. It may be tough on the legs but it's also a lot of fun.

There's always things going on in the office. Tardy and dismissal passes to write, schedule changes to do as well as many other assorted tasks to carry out. It may be busy and rushed but somehow everything gets done.

Guidance, vocational and library aides, as well as the principal's office aides are all hard working students who forfeit study halls in order to lend a hand. It's thanks to them and all the wonderful secretaries that SHS runs so smoothly.

Chess and Dungeons and Dragons Provide Fierce Competition.

The Dungeons and Dragons Club is a club for people who want to use their imaginations, it allows people to roleplay a character and become him or her. They travel into fantastic realms of swords and sorcery. They fight evil creatures and gain treasure. This is not just a game. It has rules, but they can be changed as the Dungeon Master wishes to accommodate for their adventure. This game teaches them to use their minds to get out of tricky situations and to rescue lost friends. The characters can be spell casters, fighters or thieves. There are many benefits to this club, it is fun and we may not go on trips but we don't have fund raisers all the time. We need more people and we welcome beginners. It is an easy game to learn and it is a fun club. Come and see us sometime!

— Daryl White

The Chess Club had a good year. We traveled to many different schools and had fun at tournaments.

The first half of the year was spent organizing and forming a tournament team. The initial team standings from the strongest to weakest was determined and the team was decided. This year's officers were Glenn Gagne, Drew Ritchie, Doug Cummings and Brian Cole.

A Typical Evening in 208A

One thing about being on the Echo staff is that you can exercise complete artistic freedom while writing the Echo article. You don't have to worry about editing it, spelling everything correctly, in fact you don't even have to worry about anyone even reading it, because the only one will probably be the author's mother.

Since I don't think anyone will read this except maybe some staff members, the remainder of this article will be directed towards them. Hey guys! How many times have you heard the following phrases? (on a late night in 208A)

"You messed up the senior section in the A's!!!"

"Where are the Lacrosse pictures?"

"I wish you'd throw those old sandwiches out."

"Get this junk off the table!!!"

"Give that copy to me before you lose it."

"I refuse to do the faculty section one more time."

"How do you set the margins on this Stupid typewriter?"

"Chuck that baby in the Squid-file."

"How's 6:30 sound?"

"I don't understand how these captions go."

"Is Chickey spelt with an e-y or an i-e?"

"Forget it. Let's just write Alfred."

"You forgot to put a scorebox in again."

"Where's the ladder?"

"Please don't play that Survivor tape again."

"I think we've had enough of Bob for one night."

"Who's Squidhead?"

"I can't type. Really."

At last when this book is packed and the last stamp is licked, the exhausted staff can finally relax and be proud of a job well done. Thanks guys! We couldn't have done it without you!

But don't get too comfortable. The supplement is just around the corner.

The Fastest Game on Two Feet

Lacrosse is the fastest game on two feet. It is a quick paced game which has qualities much like those of hockey and basketball. This is the fourth year of the Lacrosse club's existence here at Spaulding High School.

The person who is responsible for the continuation of the club is its coach, Scott Cameron. Although the club has a mediocre record of two wins and four losses, this does not reflect the long hours that Scott has spent instructing the club.

Last year was a rebuilding year for Spaulding Lacrosse. Those who started playing last year have become matured, experienced Lacrosse players. This year, the team consists of these veterans and has only lost two of its members to graduation. Because of this, we feel we can look forward to a good fourth season. Nevertheless, win or lose, we always have a good time.

But someday, one will remember that special teacher — the one who brought a little humor into the lesson plan — the one who told stories — the one who made it fun to come to class. It may just take a while to realize what a special person that teacher was. Maybe it'll dawn on us the next time Halley's Comet rolls around . . .

New Course Requirements Hurt SHS Business Department

The business department has been very helpful to us for the past three years. Business courses are offered to Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. As sophomores you can take Typing 1, Shorthand 1, and Bookkeeping 1/2. During your junior and senior years you can take any of the following courses: Bookkeeping 3/4, Typing 2, Career Office Practice, for seniors, Business Law and Economics, Shorthand 2, Business Management, and Data Processing.

Following the business curriculum will help prepare you for the business world. Starting this year, students have more required courses which will hurt the business department and students who want to further their education in business.

Spauldings business program is excellent and we would recommend taking some of these courses.

Professional Printing and Tuned Motors

Graphic Occupations is a two-year course in the Printing trades. Printing is a lot more than most people think. The first year you learn the basics in all the areas: Design, Photography, Typesetting, Paste-Up, Camera Work, Stripping, Platemaking, Printing, and finally the Finishing Machines, like the cutter and the folder. The second year, students choose the areas in which they want to work, and throughout the year, the class works like a printing shop.

"Our class is like a family . . . It's the only class that keeps me going through the day . . . One reason I like it so much is because you're up and moving around, and not just sitting there."

— Jen Evans

Auto mechanics is a two-year course in which computer-balancing tires, giving tune-ups and other various techniques are involved. Students become very familiar with most vehicles and are prepared for a future in any related field. It is felt that high school is the best time and place to start learning the trade. The class gives each individual the opportunity and knowledge to succeed in their chosen career.

Building and Machine Trades are Serious Classes

The Building Trades class this year has a great deal of working effort. The classmates are very determined to work their hardest to build a house and put the base on a second. They feel that if they work hard enough, they can do it.

The class is good experience and it is felt that if you can measure with a ruler and hammer a nail then you can be a good carpenter. The class feels that their teacher, Mr. Guillmette, is one of the best teachers ever. The Building Trades class encourages anyone who likes to work with their hands to get into the program. They feel that they have a lot of fun while they learn a lot.

— Mike Grandbois

A must for students going into the industrial world, Machine Trades is an important vocational class at Spaulding. It is a hands-on class which provides the much needed experience of the machine tool process. Time is spent on a number of machines such as metal lathes, milling machines and surface grinders.

Students also work with technical math and blueprints. This work is very important because plans and finished products must match exactly.

Machine Trades gives student a chance to experience their future careers.

PEG drafts 'em, Stone Trades cuts 'em

Pre-Engineering Graphics is a 2-year vocational program which gives students the basic skills of drafting. The first year, the student is taught the uses of the drafting equipment and basic methods of drawing. The second year, the stress is on specialization and certain careers. A great deal of time is spent surveying and working with the Computer-Aided Drafting (CAD) system. A term paper on a specific career is required.

The Barre Vocational Center offers the only "stone school" in the country, giving regional students the opportunity to learn a unique trade. The program benefits both the student and the local industry in that it provides a constant and highly skilled work force and it also allows graduates to stay close to home with immediate employment. Students

The basic goal of the program is to give the student enough skills to obtain a job directly after high school or give the student a solid background for further schooling. One student described PEG as, "An excellent program that gave me a lot of experience with drafting." Another said, "PEG will give me an edge in whatever I decide to do after high school." If a student likes drafting, PEG is the class to take.

Diversified and Health Occupations Prepare Students

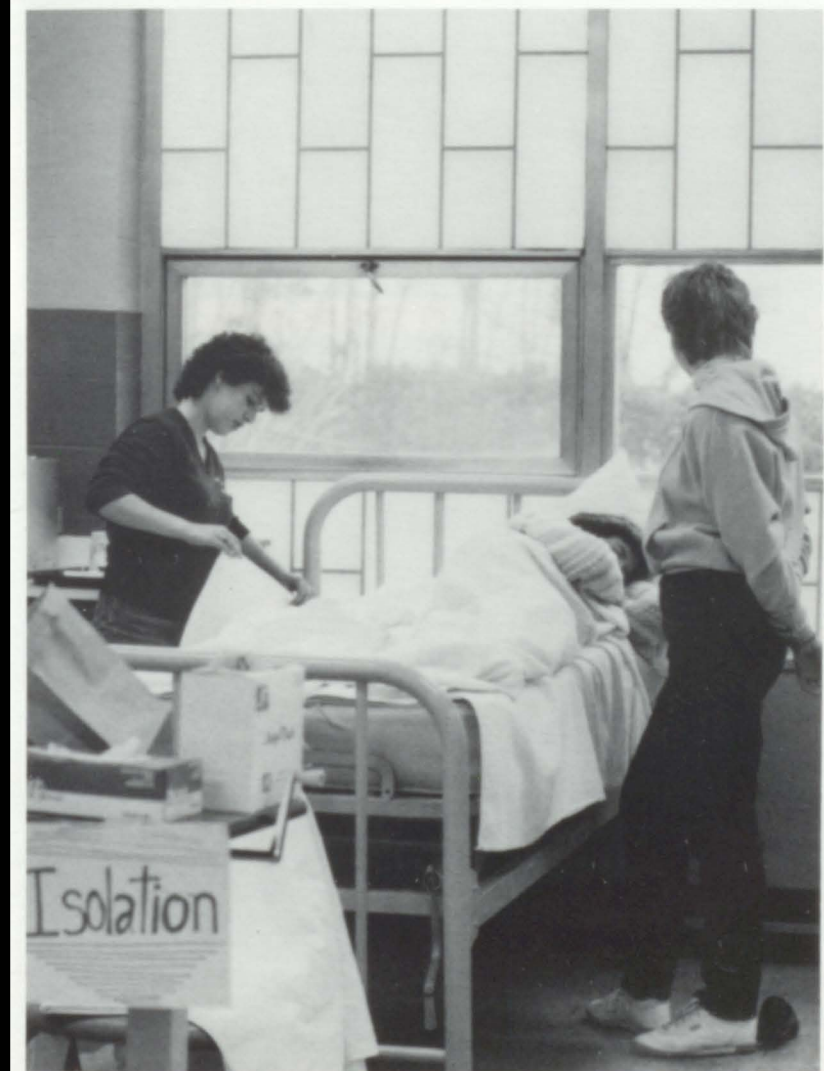

Classes in Diversified Occupations focus on daily living skills that will prepare students for work and independent living. Each student works at their own level and takes a combination of language arts, math, home-ec, industrial arts, physical education, and work experience classes.

Students develop practical skills through work placement and teaching in community settings (for example, depositing a paycheck in a local bank). These skills enable students to have more choices in their future work and personal lives.

— Mrs. Sandra Harris

Health Occupations is generally a two year program. However, it is possible to enroll for one year. The purpose of this course is to prepare a student for job entry in health fields upon graduation. This may be as an orderly, nurse assistant, physical therapy aide, dental aide, laboratory or x-ray aide etc. It is also an excellent preparation for entry into post-secondary vocational or technical programs. 94% of the students go on to school. "I am presently attending Thomson School for LPN's and Health Occupations was a great help to me," says Pam Cloutier. It is a class committed to providing students with an excellent base for any career in the health fields.

Gym class lasts 3 years — as sales Go Up in Distributive Education

Another fall, and another new year of classes begins at good ol' SHS. But what is this?!? Complaining from the sophomores about gym class again? You bet.!

At the return of school this year, the class of '88 was informed that this would not be their last year of gym class. As one sophomore said, "Gym for three years — will I survive?"

In talking with Mrs. Gray, we find how these changes occurred. The requirements for graduation, concerning gym, were moved from one credit to one and a half credits. As the English and History Students on the Uprise!

The History department went through many changes this year. Mr. Maiola took Perk's place as department head. Canadian Cultures and Latin American History were added to the course list, which Miss Judith Holmes was hired to teach. According to Mr. Maiola there was a record number of students in the History department this year, 963 out of the school's 1024.

— Glenn Gagne

There are approximately 11,550 English classes held in a school year. (Eegads!) The thirteen teachers who manage to instruct them are: Mr. and Mrs. Casey, Mr. Comley, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Lindquist, Mrs. Morris, Mr. Rapalje, Mrs. Ritzo, Mrs. Russell, Miss Shadrouti, Ms. Sinclair, Mrs. Tidd, and Miss Watson.

Out of my four years of experience in English classes, American Studies with Mrs. Morris and Mr. Perkins have been my most memorable. We had quite a group, what with students who had braved it through two previous years in the Honors program, along with a few newcomers. Who could forget Perk's 25,000 maps (Holy God!) and creative writings due every Monday for Goody Morris? (We did learn our early settlers!) And how about playing a game of Wheel of Fortune or Jeopardy on the chalkboard when we had subs?

We really were dedicated. (Got the sports page, Perk?) (Can we go on a field trip?) Then there was a day at Norwich to do research for a term paper. Research? Well, I still do believe there is a ghost on the top floor of the library. (Perhaps the soul of a poor cadet who never took an English class at SHS?)

I am a person who prefers to observe rather than participate. I don't regret it. I learned just as much from watching and listening to the amusing people in my class as I did from the teachers. No matter what classes you have taken, I'm sure you've also found this to be true.

It was a great year, I wouldn't trade for anything, (except the A — I never got!) Thanks 86!

The Science Department at Spaulding is a blend of many things. If you want to play with slinkies in physics class, dissect fetal pigs in biology or visit sewage plants in Chem II, you can do it all at Spaulding.

This year, we have a new science teacher at SHS, Mr. McSweeney. A new teacher was needed because the state made new requirements in science. One student said, "I think that it's Art 1-4: The End of an Era?

This could be the last year of art classes as we know them now. Next year, the plan is to do away with the traditional Art 1-4 classes and just have an Art 1 class. Classes in painting, sculpture and other specified fields of art are to be offered to the advanced students.

Regardless of the future, the present day classes are just what they've always been: an escape from the more academic subjects. As Beth Sargent, an art 2, says "I look forward to art class all day."

When you get right down to it, what is art? To quote an artist I once met, "What is Art? Art is beauty — Art is a little tweeting bird — Art is a man who runs the drugstore down the street — Art is "tra" spelt backwards — Art is art is art . . ."

Sports

In the year 1066, Comet Halley passed through the European skies while William the Conqueror of France was drawing up plans for the Norman invasion of England. William proclaimed that the comet was a sign of doom for the English king, Harold, and glory for the French invaders.

920 years later, in 1986, Halley's Comet has again been the herald of glory and doom — in Spaulding High School sports. This year, Spaulding produced champion-caliber cheerleaders, a football team that was a serious contender for a Division I title, and Shawn Colbeth, who won his 100th high school wrestling match in 1986. On the downside, the injury-ridden hockey team, Division I runners-up last season, failed to earn a playoff berth.

It has been a year of ups and downs in Spaulding sports, but on the whole, "the comet of doom" has been kind to us this year.

The Sidelines . . .

Field Hockey: Disappointing but Memorable Season

The 1985 Varsity Field Hockey team had a disappointing memorable season. Although the team had a 3-7-4 record, they remained enthusiastic throughout the season. With each game individual talent and team play improved.

Having a losing season isn't easy for any team, but this team was so close, and committed to each other a losing season was just more of a reason to stick together and push harder.

The scores of many games did not show the real ability of this team as a whole. For example, the team played two outstanding games tying South Burlington and almost beating undefeated Essex: both those teams tied for co-champions of the state.

The 1985 season will be remembered by all as an enjoyable and exciting experience.

The graduating seniors wish the best of luck to next years team.

Jayvees Promise a Successful Future For SHS Field Hockey

This year the JV Field Hockey team had a lot of enthusiasm and spirit to run on. Together we worked as a family, with the help of our coach, Barbara Cochran, and our good friend, Bodene.

The season went by fast, but we accomplished a lot, ending up with a record of 7-6-1. The team, which consisted of sophomores, and freshmen, worked hard by passing off and stopping the ball. Through all the hard work, we did our best. In the future, we hope to make Tournaments and win the State Championship for Spaulding again; we will try our best!

A Season of Ups and Downs for Tide Soccer

The 1985 Soccer Team had its ups and downs. The team finished the season strong, and, in order to qualify for the playoffs, won 3 of the 4 games against some of the best teams in Division I.

The Tide played its first couple of games well and then experienced a drought, partly because of the absence of veteran defenseman Jamie Paterson, who had an illness. Then the team started clicking because of good coaching and team morale, which brought the team to a new level of soccer.

The Soccer Team went into the playoffs with a record of 6-8 but played with the will and spirit of an undefeated team. In the first round of the playoffs the Tide encountered Colchester. Spaulding played very well, but lost 2-1 in the closing minutes of the game.

This season, Jeff Amsden was named to the Metro Division I All Stars and Mike Nativi received an Honorable Mention.

Thirteen players will be lost to graduation: Jeff Amsden, George Anderson, Mike Aylward, Courtland Blake, Somphone Chandara, Ernest Larrabee, Darin Magwire, David Molind, James Mulligan, Michael Nativi, Jamie Paterson, Michael Proulx, and Jeff Sherman. However, the team still contains some talented junior players including Gary Pletzer, Andrew Paterson, and Ethan Talmadge, who could carry the team to another playoff berth next year.

A "Mirror Image" and a "Perfect" Record

The mirror image — In the words of the Junior Varsity football coach, Mr. Wilmont, at the 1985 football banquet, the JV team mirrored the Varsity football team. The Varsity squad had a 6-2 winning season and the Spaulding had 20 boys come out for freshmen football this year. Out of these, only three had previous experience. Coaching team was Mr. Keinath, with help from Mr. Rapalje. Big Ed Benoit lead the strong tackles and sure headed Jeff Goodrich guided

Enjoyable Cheerleading Season

When the Varsity Cheerleaders look back at the 1985 fall season, we can remember it as fun and successful because of a football team that ended the season with their best record in years and a soccer team that made the playoffs. It was easy to go to each game with a positive attitude!

There were some changes on the squad this year. Instead of eleven there were twelve cheerleaders. We were supplied with megaphones, shakers, mittens, socks, and the ever popular "uniform pants."

Among the many memories will be the rides on the van. Beginning with cheers down main street, we'd all be wondering how the game would turn out. As we neared our destination, the Seniors in the back would suddenly grow suspiciously quiet, with an exception of a few giggles. This was a sign to our coach, Mary-Jane that we were up to something. However, she was always reassured by an innocent explanation from Marie, who pointed out our signs which said, "honk if you love Spaulding!" Finally we would arrive at the rival school ready to cheer our team on.

This year's Seniors: Beth, Debbie, Kristi, Marie, and Mia, will never forget the Montpelier game or the "Summer of 69". We had a great time cheering and wish next year's squad good luck.

SHS Hockey Barely Misses the Playoffs

The Spaulding Varsity Hockey team, returning Division I runners-up, got off to a great start in the 1985-86 season. Although they lost many seniors to graduation, the Tide started at 2-3 with a few tough losses to Burlington and Essex. Injuries plagued the team through its two Christmas tournaments in Waterville, Maine and Berlin N.H. The Tide lost a close 10-8 decision to St.

Domenics of Lewiston, Maine, that state's #1 team. They got back on track after the New Year and raised their record to 4-4 at the halfway mark of the season. The Tide will graduate Court Blake, Pat Gosselin, Chris Jones, Steve LaPerle, Jim Mulligan, Assistant Captains Ernie Larrabee and Mike Nativi, and Captain Dave Molind.

This year's basket ball team has not had one of its finest seasons because of injuries and other details that have stood in the way of our success.

The schedule is dwindling down to its last few games, and the team is starting to get into championship material.

This year we were graced with the presence of a lone sophomore, Don Mugford, who has helped on the boards and in scoring.

The nucleus of next year's team will be a host of returning juniors along with "Dipper Don".

JV's and Freshmen Share in Success

The butterflies in the stomachs and the nervousness probably was the culprit for our shaky start but we finally pulled through. The Freshman team of 1985-1986 finally broke the ice as each player improved his skills, and as our coach Peter Mason, pulled us together.

The 1985-1986 Jayvee boys basketball team had one of the best records ever. We were going for 17 wins and 3 losses but fell short over the last two games. It was basically the same team as the year before with the exception of the two freshman who proved that they had as much talent as the rest of the team.

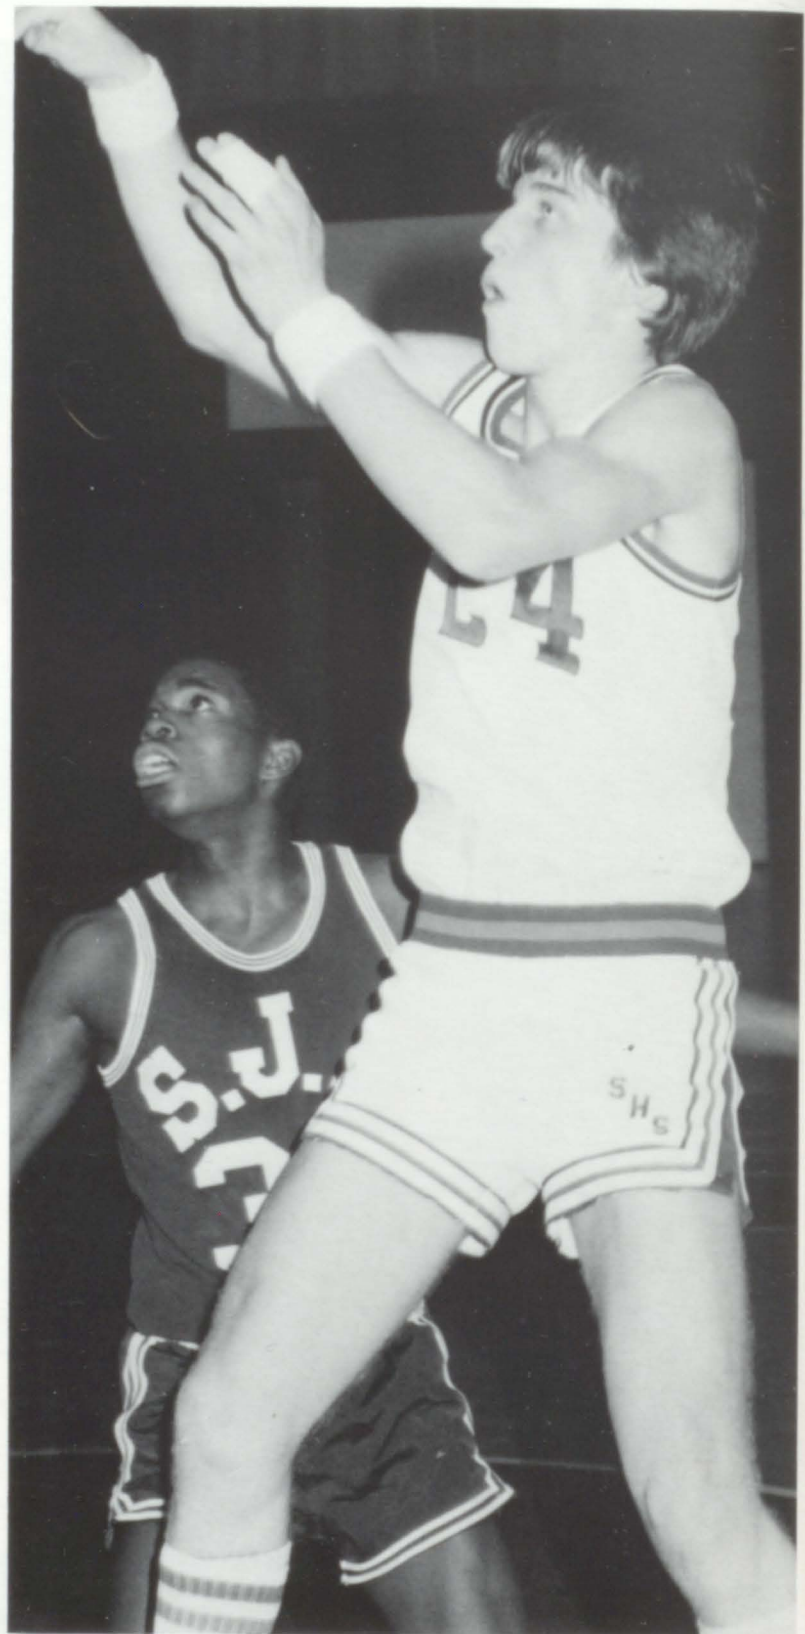

Our adversary better look out for next year because we will have one of the strongest teams as we combine our skills with the two players who were moved up to JV's this year.

The Tide Pride will once again sweep the state.

— Aaron Beltrami

We played our best games against the best teams and had the determination to win. Behind our coach, David Batchelder, we proved that the crimson Tide is a team that has the chemistry to be on top. In the years to come look for some great Spaulding basketball.

Tide Loses By Two In Playoffs

Tide Pride!! The 85-86 Girls Basketball team has shown both pride and determination this season, with respectable results.

Veteran coach Jim Atkins has taken an experienced team to the playoffs — losing a heartbreaker to B.F.A., 47-45. We ended our season with 9 wins, 12 losses.

Seniors Marcia Dion, Jackie Nolan, Deb Merrill, Deb Chatot, Lisa Nativi, Gretchen Spangler and Liz Wells have all contributed to our success.

Juniors Jenny Plante and Sherry Perantoni have been outstanding, while Katie Avery, Jody Jordan, Carolyn Kiniry, Mary Beth Pinard and Julie Sancibrian — thought seeing limited action — show promise for the future.

Freshman Sue Duke, a late season addition, has helped in recent victories.

Co-captains Dion and Nolan have performed steadily — with consistent scoring and rebounding. Plante, improving with each game, balances the team while Merrill and Perantoni direct the offense with quickness and style.

Our season has been memorable in more than games won and lost. We've shared good times and disappointments, learned to work together and care for each other.

These experiences we share as a team, and as a team, we would like to thank our coach and managers, Junior Varsity team, parents and followers for their support.

Girls Triumph in U-32 Tournament

The JV Basketball Team started out the season with returning coach Judy Abbiati. Consisting of 6 sophomores and 9 freshmen, the team rolled on a winning streak before downing their first to Essex.

All in all, the squad contributed great talent and speed which showed in the final record of 15-3. Their ability to work on and off the court as a team, brought many rewards. The team was invited to a tournament and after winning all the games they played, they took the first place trophy.

With the returning freshmen, next years season should be as bright as 1985-1986.

Varsity Wrestling — Winning Through Intimidation

The Spaulding wrestling team had a very successful season this year. Led by co-captains Rusty Copping and Shaun Colberth. The Tide grapplers achieved an 8-5 record.

The Tide performed well despite the injuries and illnesses throughout the year.

This year was a year to remember in wrestling, due to Shaun Colberth receiving his 100th win against Harwood. His is the second wrestler in Spaulding's history to accomplish this, and with hard work, dedication and determination he was able to do this.

In our four years of wrestling, our achievements couldn't have been accomplished without the dedication, encouragement and support from coach Chuck Welch who was our coach for our first two years of high school and was given special notification for coaching his team to a State Championship victory in 1984. We also give our thanks to David McFarlin and Mike Melkonian who took over in 1985 and 1986, our last year.

Varsity is 1st in Regionals and 3rd in State

All season long we've stayed together as a squad. We've figured out how to make things work. All it takes is togetherness. That's what cheerleading is all about.

A great, strong, loud team of cheerleaders is what we were this year. We worked together as a team towards the hope of winning the competition but along the way we cheered on our great basketball team and had a lot of Freshmen Cheerleading has been a lot of fun this year. But it has been hard. Especially at the beginning, not everyone knew the jumps & cheers. But we have come a long way! Cheerleading takes a lot of time. We have a lot of games and practices, but everyone seems to be having a great time! Our squad gets along good, and I think we have done a fun. We share many memories of away games, falling off mounts and always trying again, and having buffets on long trips. Good luck is given to the cheerleaders next year and also to the Seniors. The Seniors are Celia Burke, Mia Calevro, Marie Dessureau, Suzie Peloquin, Beth Taylor, and Debbie Clark.

Excellence In Rifle Continues

The rifle team continues its excellence in competition shooting due to the individual effort of each shooter. After many hours of practice, each shooter gets a finely tuned position that enables him to tell if he hit a dot the size of a pin point at fifty feet, even before the bullet hits the paper. If you put these shooters together you get success and the SHS rifle team has been a success for over thirteen years. It will continue to be a success in the years to come with the help of our two coaches, Roger Couture and Frank Demell.

People

In 1835, in a little midwestern town, a boy named Samuel Langhorne Clemens was born, as Halley's Comet was passing through the sky. He grew up to be Mark Twain, one of America's greatest writers. In 1910, while lying on his deathbed, a visitor expressed some hope of his recovery. Twain shook his head. "I came in with the comet," he said, "and I will go out with it." The day he died, the comet was again visible in the sky.

The class of '86 is not unlike Mark Twain. They came into Spaulding unknown and have risen through the ranks. Although the seniors may have more to say about how the school is run than the other classes, it is everyone, including the faculty (and even the freshmen,) who make the school what it is. Nevertheless, it's the seniors who are on the top of the tide, and now it's their turn to go out with the comet.

Going Out

With The Comet

Time to go Our Separate Ways

The class of 1986. That's us! Our year of graduation has finally rolled around. When we were Freshman, graduation seemed like centuries away and now it is upon us.

As I reminisce about the times we spent together special things come to mind. Our first experience together as a class was the Freshmen Reception. All of us were imagining the worst. We thought the Seniors were going to make us look like fools but it turned out that it wasn't that bad. We all made it through it with only some slight embarrassment.

In our Sophomore year we bought our class rings. This seemed to really make us part of the school. We weren't "itty-bitty Freshmen" anymore. Things seemed to be looking up.

Our Junior year was a huge success. A large part of that coming from our extraordinary Junior Prom. Many people commented that it was the best prom they had ever seen at SHS. Our class pulled together and all of our hard work certainly paid off.

And now our last year together is here. Our homecoming went off without a hitch. The Seniors won the float category as well as the over all "Spirit Week" contest.

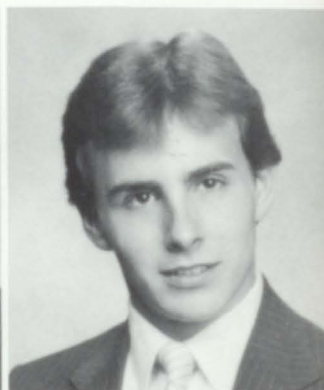

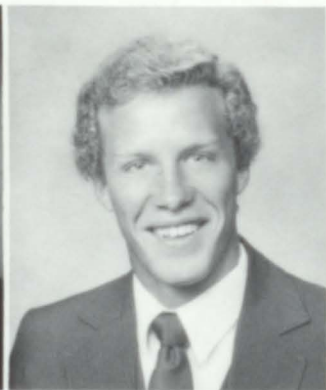

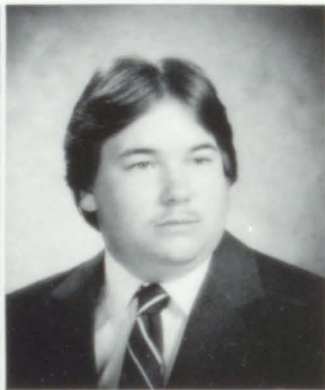

Since our Freshmen year we have grown together. We've been with each other through good times as well as some bad. Now, it is time to go our separate ways but we can always look back and remember old friends, the good times we spent together, and of course, good ol' SHS.

Glory to Spaulding

Glory to Spaulding
 Loyal we sing
 Now all together
 Let the echoes ring
 For Spaulding
 Our team's a winner
 We got the stuff
 We are the red and blue
 And that's enough!!!
 Rah, Rah, Rah

1986 — the year we've been looking forward to has arrived, too quickly for many of us. Soon we'll all be moving on to new lives complete with new hopes, dreams and friends.

Looking back we find memories of good times accomplishments, and friends that will last a life time. We've all enjoyed our time together and we can leave Spaulding knowing that we've succeeded in doing our best for ourselves and our school.

Right — Beth Taylor, Liz Wells and Jackie Nolan — what a motley crew of office aides.

GRADUATION

They call this the end, it's graduation day.

We'll say goodbye to special friends, and let the past just slip away.

It's hard, oh so hard to let go of friendships and past times that all seemed worthwhile, a dream we once cherished, a simple but meaningful smile.

We knew it had to happen eventually, with a squeeze of the hand and a friendly kiss. We remember little things that made us laugh and take a look at day's we'll certainly miss.

Today will be the end of our years together; but there are so many memories that will last forever. But these were the best of times, ones we'll never forget, we were a special class, The Class of Eight-six.

Memories of Tender Years

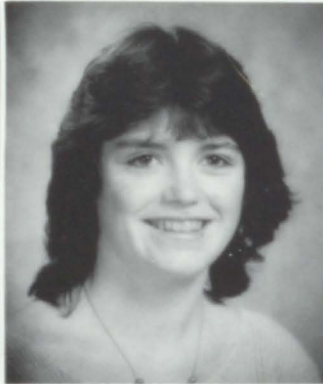

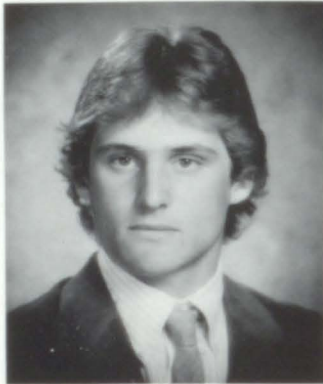

We started out as Freshmen
 With initiation and harassment,
 But we stuck together and learned a lot
 And on to sophomores we soon went!
 Our Sophomore year was excellent
 With initiation of our new class rings,
 For now we started to grow in strength
 Prepared for whatever next year brings!
 Our Junior year has been wonderful
 For we've showed our spirit in every fight,
 From the powder puff game to Spirit
 Week
 To fund raisers for our Junior Prom night!
 Now it's June 11th of eighty-six
 And we've all dressed up and look just right,
 And being with friends we hold so dear
 Bring out the joy in the air tonight!
 Four years have quickly passed us by
 And our memories are oh so dear,
 We've learned a lot and made new friends
 But we'll always remember our high school years!

Homeroom — It's the Most Interesting Ten Minutes of the Day

From itty bitty freshman to mighty mighty seniors, Mr. Trombley has watched his homeroom grow. Addressed as Mr. Trombley Sir, he watched the giggly freshmen tumble in to begin their career at SHS and come this June, addressed as JJ Buddy, he will see them graduate.

One may ask why we are using this page to show a senior homeroom. The answer is simple. Homeroom is probably on of the best spent ten minutes of the day and it is never represented in the book. Well, it is this year.

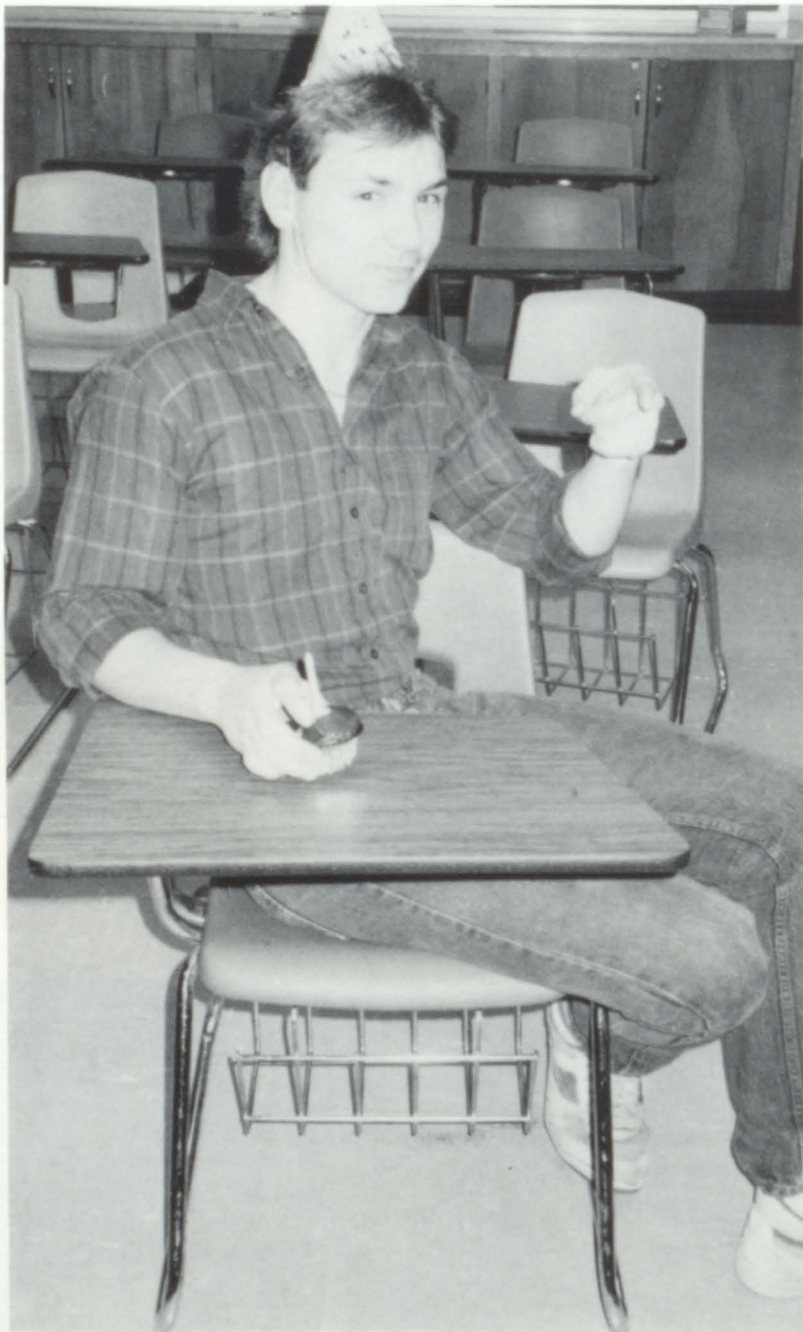

Homeroom is the time to find out what is going on. Announcements are read, gossip flies around and students make the final transition from sleep to consciousness. Where else can you find out who did what to who where, in ten short minutes. Homeroom is a vital part of social activity!

After we have left SHS, I am sure that many of the fond memories made in high school will have originated at 7:40, in someones homeroom.

— Avery Duffy

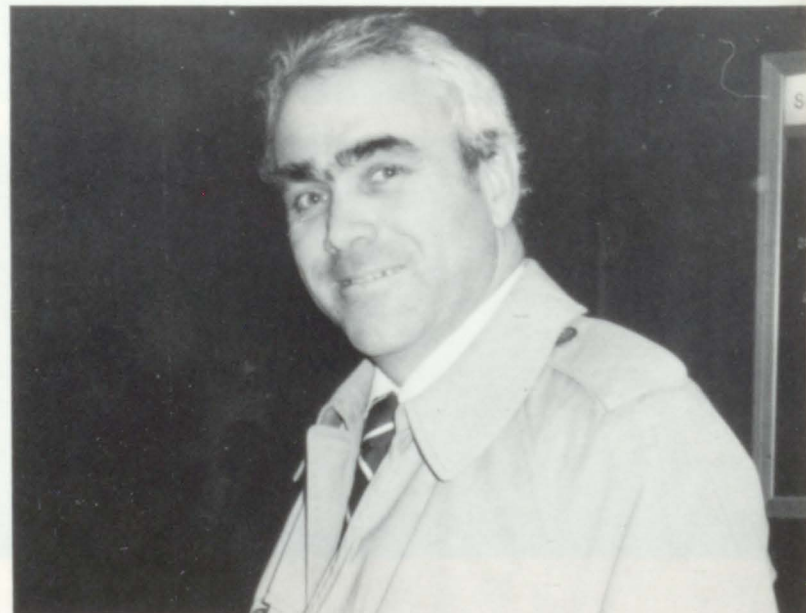

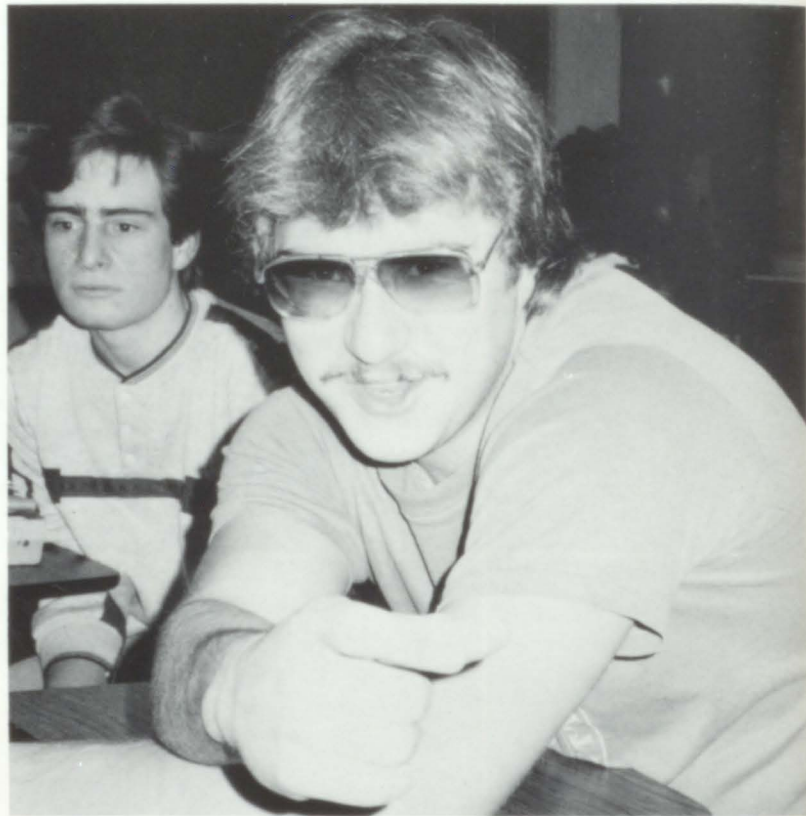

Below Center — The elusive Henry Fantoni doesn't seem to want his face in the book — too late now Henry.

Below — Mary-Beth Gacetta, though she does look dreamy eyed, works on writing Mr. Trombley's passes.

Right — Mr. Trombley, a little worse for wear, can't believe his squirrely freshman have become seniors.

There's Something Special About Our Class

The class of '87 definitely had a great junior year. I'm sure most of us will never forget it! We became a closer group of friends than we ever had been before. Everyone really pulled together during spirit week, and as a result, we won the hall decorating contest!

Many members of the class of '87 began to realize how special our high school days are. There always seemed to be a ton of juniors at all the sports events, either participating, or having a great time cheering the teams on.

The magazine sale was a great success. Our class raised an incredible amount of money. Almost every member of the class made an effort to sell magazines, and was rewarded with a prize.

We plan to have an extra special Junior Prom, to be held at the Barre Elks Club. No class has ever held it there before!

The class of 1987 has really enjoyed its junior year, and is anxiously looking forward to its senior year. I know it will be a terrific year, because there is something special about our class.

Right — Junior Class President, Karen Casey, isn't too sure she likes what is going on.

Sophomores Start to Grow as a Class

We came from the bottom, looking up to everyone, knowing someday soon it would be others looking up to us.

And now, we're one step further to the top; we're no longer the class on the bottom. Our class has come together a lot this year, and we've worked hard to earn money for future events.

We've had a successful dance and ring sale, and we're going to keep working hard together to make our class the best class to come out of Spaulding.

The class of 1988 is approaching its last high school years with enthusiasm. It won't be long before we leave and go our separate ways. Until then, let's stick together.

Right — Sophomore Jeff Anton thinks to himself — "Gee, I really am beautiful."

Despite Mixed Emotions, Freshmen Pull Together

SPAULDING . . . for many of us nearing our eighth grade graduation, this word held mixed emotions. Excitement, enthusiasm, but still that same scared feeling that would again haunt us during our first few days at SHS. Since then, we have begun to grow as a class. We showed our spirit during spirit week when we placed second in the red and blue day count, behind the seniors. We also received many compliments on our hall decorations which was said to be the best in years.

High school is full of opportunities to meet new people. Whether it's through classes, clubs, or sport activities, the people in the Freshman class have started friendships which will last a life time. I think we've adjusted well to the process of mixing different schools together, and becoming a whole. Everyone seems to get along.

Our Freshman year is a time of new and exciting challenges. The class of '89 accepts these challenges, and with every effort, will make them the best class to ever come to Spaulding!!

We look forward to our next three years, because they'll be spent here — at Spaulding — home of the Mighty Crimson Tide.

Business Staff Works Hard To Support the Echo

The Echo Business Staff is kept busy during homeroom, and after school. Between chasing students for their payments on their yearbook, and chasing patrons for their contributions with their ads, this staff doesn't have much time of their own! Good luck next year!

— Mary Beth Gacetta

COLOPHON

The 1986 Our Echo is a publication of the Spaulding High School yearbook staff. Six-hundred-thirty 9x12 copies were printed by Hunter Publishing Company, P.O. Box 5867, Winston-Salem, NC 27103.

The cover material is lexotone and was four color lithographed on a 120 point binder board. The cover design was done by Liz Martin. The copy is set in garamond on 80 pound paper in black ink. Body copy is set in eight and ten point, captions in eight point and the Index-Senior directory in eight point. All headlines are twenty-four point.

All black and white photography was processed by Maclean-Stevens Studio, 3 North Spring Street, Concord, NH 03301.

The ladder is full, the copy basket empty and the typewriters turned off. The Echo Room is quiet and the book has been finished. It's hard to believe but finally, after all the frustration, things pulled together and we are done.

One hundred and sixty pages, five months, three bottles of white-out and hundreds of nuggets ago, the book was empty. Blank pages stared me in the face and I puzzled at how to fill them. It seemed impossible to include all the things about SHS that make it so special. What had I gotten myself into?

Well, some how I did it — and not without help. Mr. Ric Nudell and Mr. Mike Gilbert, advisor and business manager, I thank you for all the guidance and support you have given me. I am indebted to so many for so much but two stand out in my mind. Mr. Walton and Mr. Morgan — I thank you for helping me out. It's the people behind the scenes that do so much.

To the staff I owe gratitude and admiration. You were dedicated and didn't quit when it got rough. You worked hard and you were the backbone of the 1986 Our Echo. I hope you look back with pride and enjoy the satisfaction of a job well done.

As I look back, the memories of frustration caused by late copy, lost photos, uncooperative organizations and of course, exhaustion have faded. Mainly, the memories of smiles, hugs, words of encouragement and laughter remain. I will never forget Squid, or Opus, freezie pops or "parts," Troy pictures or Liz's stale sandwiches — it will be a long time before I can listen to a Survivor tape without a smile creeping over my face.

For those who made these memories, a few paragraphs at the end of a yearbook are inadequate to express my gratitude. I hope that these special people know how much their willingness to help at any time has meant to me. My debt to you can never be paid.

To Liz Martin, who had the toughest job of all — I owe thanks for putting up with me. Your touch of genius brought the book together. Your commitment could never be topped. You were always there when I needed you and I know I could never have a better friend.

I have now had my say, and soon it will be someone else's turn. I will miss it all more than any of you realize: the chaos, the questions, the complaints, the jokes, the hysteria and the fun. But mainly I will miss the people — the Echo family. My memories are warm and I will treasure them forever.
